AMeson Year in China

Looking for a paid job abroad with free housing, full reimbursement for airfare, and even more amazing benefits?

The AMeson Education and Cultural Exchange Foundation is looking for students graduating in Spring 2013 to participate in our AMeson Year in China program.

As a participant in AYC, you will teach English for one academic year in China. You will teach in a secondary school, a primary school, or an adult learning center. You will interact with students, colleagues, and other Chinese citizens as an unofficial ambassador for your country and challenge misconceptions about its culture, society, and educational system.

AYC is designed for college-educated, open-minded people seeking to expand their horizons and enhance their careers. Any native English speaking person is welcome to apply. There is no program fee to participate in AYC.

Benefits:

- Monthly stipend of 5000 RMB
- Free Chinese language lessons
- Free housing
- Reimbursement for round trip flights
- Basic health insurance
- Free airport pickup and arrival support

Qualifications:

- Holder of a Bachelor’s degree or higher by June 2013
- Native English Speaker
- No criminal record
- Passionate, motivated, self-disciplined, and adaptable
- Willing to teach students between the ages of 6 and 15

Teach. Travel. Enrich.

The deadline to apply is March 31, 2013.

To apply, send your resume to Grace Harter, Regional Project Coordinator, at gharter@ameson.org

For more information, visit www.ameson.org/ayc

The AMeson Education and Cultural Exchange Foundation is a non-profit, non-governmental organization committed to the promotion and implementation of education exchanges in China and abroad with offices in Shanghai, Beijing, Nanjing, and Washington, D.C.