CCSU CELEBRATES ASIA DAY
“TRADITION, OPPORTUNITIES AND CONNECTION”
Thursday, November 8, 2012
12:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.
Alumni Hall, Student Center

Student Poster Presentation: Culture, Geography, and Language
12:30-6:30

Leaning About Asia
CCSU students in Chinese and Japanese classes
12:30-1:30

“Chinese Cities”
Dr. Piper Gaubatz, Professor of Geosciences at University of Massachusetts
1:30-2:15

“The Zen Life in Japan Today”
Dr. William Johnson, Professor of Japanese History at Wesleyan University
2:15-3:00

My Experience in Asia
CCSU students in the Course Abroad Program to Japan, China and South Korea, 2011 & 2012
Collin Glasow, Michael Rebeschi, Reinaldy Hidajat, Justin Liappes, Ian Williams, Richard Malavasi, Pauline Galezowski
3:00-4:00

CCSU Faculty Panel “Asia in the 21st Century”
Dr. Mark Jones, Dr. Xiaoping Shen, Dr. Howook Chang, and Dr. Paul Petterson
4:00-5:15

Taiko Japanese Drumming
Stuart Paton, Founder of the Burlington Taiko Group in Vermont
5:20-6:20

Open to the Public, Refreshment will be served

Co-Sponsored by: Center for East Asia Studies, International & Area Studies Program, Center for International Education, and Departments of Modern Languages, History, Geography Political Science and Anthropology.

For Further Information Contact Dr. Shizuko Tomoda, Tomodas@ccsu.edu