FINANCE: PART-TIME INSTRUCTORS / Applicant Pool
STARTING DATE: Ongoing

The Department of Finance & Law at Central Connecticut State University seeks to establish a pool of qualified applicants for future part-time appointments as adjunct faculty in the discipline of Finance. The Department of Accounting and Finance is one of five academic departments within the School of Business, which is AACSB accredited. Courses would be taught on campus, and are offered both days and evenings. A limited number of positions varies by semester, and depends upon the needs of the department. Appointments are for one semester, and may be renewable based on need, funding, and performance.

We are especially interested in practitioners who have professional and teaching expertise in the areas of:

1. Managerial Finance
2. Intermediate Managerial Finance
3. Advanced Managerial Finance
4. Securities Analysis
5. Financial Statement Analysis
6. Bank Management
7. Risk Management
8. Insurance

Minimum Qualifications

1. At least a Master’s degree or higher in finance or in a related field.
2. A financial professional experience that is current, substantial in terms of duration and level of responsibility
3. Experience must include three years of recent high-level financial /managerial/technical experience, and may include, but is not limited to work in private industry, government, and/or not-for-profit organizations.
4. Applicants must be able to legally work in the United States. The Department is unable to arrange work permits for Instructor positions.

Preferred Qualifications:

1. Evidence of quality teaching experience
2. Evidence of professional engagement
3. Professional Certification (CFA, CPA, CFP)
4. Continued employment at same or higher level of professional responsibility as at the time of initial hire
5. Maintaining a consulting practice
6. Ability to research and publish in discipline-related areas

In addition to practitioners, we welcome applications from academics who are classified as scholarly academic or practice academic according to AACSB standards.

To apply, please submit the following via email to Prof. Joseph Farhat (JosephFarhat@ccsu.edu):
Applications must include:

1. A resume
2. Statement of Interest, including descriptions of discipline area(s) you are qualified to teach in and availability (morning / afternoon/ evening classes)
3. Contact information for three references

Screening of applicants begins immediately and will continue as needed; some appointments may begin in the 2016 Fall semester. Salary is commensurate with experience.

Central Connecticut State University is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer.