STARTING DATE: On-going

Central Connecticut State University’s School of Business seeks to establish a pool of qualified candidates to teach Finance and Business Law for future part-time appointments. Courses would be taught on campus and are offered both days and evenings. A limited number of positions vary by semester and depend upon the needs of the department. Appointments are for one semester and may be renewable based on need, funding, and performance.

FINANCE

Minimum Qualifications
- Master’s degree in finance or a field related to their areas of teaching; and,
- At least five years of discipline-related professional experience.

Preferred Qualifications:
- CFA Certification
- Ability to research and publish in discipline-related areas
- Evidence of quality teaching experience

BUSINESS LAW

Minimum Qualifications
- JD; and
- At least five years of discipline-related professional experience.

Preferred Qualifications:
- Ability to research and publish in discipline-related areas
- Evidence of quality teaching experience

Application Process: Interested candidates, please send the following application materials to Dr. Patti Root at rootp@ccsu.edu:
- A resume
- Statement of Interest, including descriptions of discipline area(s) you are qualified to teach in and availability (morning / afternoon/ evening classes); and,
- Contact information for three references

Screening of applicants will begin immediately and will continue as needed; some appointments may begin for the 2016 Spring semester. Salary is commensurate with experience. Applicants must be able to legally work in the United States; the department is unable to arrange work permits for part-time positions.

Central Connecticut State University is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer.