

1st Annual Connecticut-Wide Human Resource Management / Organizational Behaviour Academic and Practitioner Conference

Sponsored by

Monday, May 14, 2018

8:30 AM – 4:00 PM

8.30 – 9.00 a.m.	Registration Coffee & Tea	Social Science Building, Lobby
9.10 – 9.50 a.m.	Dr. Karen Whelan-Berry – Guest Speaker Scholar/Practitioner	Positively Thriving in the 21 st Century
10.00 – 10.50	Michael Boissonneault Cathy Pagliaro Dr Drew Harris	Soft Skills & Leadership: HR Insights for Managers Mergers, Acquisitions and Employee Engagement: A View of HRM from the Other Side Facts, Convenient Fictions and a Research-based Counter-Narrative Regarding Jobs, Entrepreneurship and Public Policy
11.00 – 12.00	CT State Legislators	Special Panel Sessions Jobs & Higher Education in CT
12.00 – 1.05	Lunch & Best Student Papers	Memorial Hall: Southwest Study Lounge
1.15 – 2.00	Dr. Maureen Conard Kristen Sweizer Fiorella Takeuchi Dr. Kimberly Sherman University of MA-Amherst Dr. Heidi Hughes	Personality Oriented Job Analysis Incivility in the Workplace – What is it? What do we know about the impact? Accumulating Social Capital: Benefits for individuals and organizations

2.05 – 3.00	Dr. Hyoun Sook Lim Dr Sinead Ruane Dr. Chris Lee	Why Do Some Entrepreneurs Recognize Creative Opportunities, While Others Do Not? The Changing Landscape of HRM: The Case of Career Coaching What affects work-study college students' productivity in the workplace?
3.05 – 4.00	Workshop Jackie Bardoorian Director, Leadership Development & Dr. David Fearon	The Fight for Next Gen Leaders: Based on a case in progress

Guest Speaker
Karen Whelan-Berry, PhD

Dr. Karen Whelan-Berry is a positive psychology and organizational development scholar/practitioner with extensive corporate and higher education experience. Karen focuses on research and practice at the intersection of ideal self, teams, and performance excellence; individual and organizational positive change, and instructional design that cultivates immediate and long-term skills and habits. She holds a PhD in Organizational Studies from the Boston College Carroll School of Management, Certificates in Positive Psychology, Positive Psychology Coaching, Mindfulness and Character Strengths in Coaching and Teaching for Transformation from Wholebeing Institute. Karen is on the faculty of Springfield College, and is adjunct faculty for Wholebeing Institute

Location: Social Science Building.
Directions to CCSU Social Science Building:

Parking: Free parking at the CCSU Student Center parking lot and the Student center Parking garage (gray cement garage on the east side of the parking lot). No parking passes are needed.

GPS Parking

Directions: 105 Ella Grasso Boulevard, New Britain, CT 06053

Building Location Social Sciences Hall,. From the Student Center Parking Lot or garage, walk southwest to the red brick Social Sciences Building.

Campus Map: Please click the following link to access the CCSU campus map. Click on Locations, then Parking and or Buildings and make your selection.
<http://web.ccsu.edu/campusmap/>.