Bachelor of Science in Management Information Systems
Course Sequencing – Effective Fall 2018
Students Must Complete the MIS Core, One Set of Specialization Courses, and One Directed Elective

- In addition to 3 specialization courses, one directed elective must be selected as follows (be sure to check prerequisites on all directed electives):
  - Business Analytics specialization also requires a directed MIS elective from this list: MIS 210, 410, 460, 462, 464, 465, 466, 494, 496, 498
  - Information Security and Infrastructure also requires a directed MIS elective from this list: MIS 210, 400, 460, 462, 463, 465, 466, 494, 496, 498
  - Business Application Development also requires a directed MIS elective from this list: MIS 210, 400, 460, 462, 463, 464, 465, 494, 496, 498
  - Enterprise Resource Planning Systems also requires a directed MIS elective from this list: MIS 210, 400, 460, 462, 463, 464, 465, 494, 496, 498

Legend: 1 = MIS Core; 2 = Junior/Senior Standing Required; 3 = Can be taken concurrently

Created: Feb 20, 2018