Old Business:

- Continuing the conversation: BOR/CSCU Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Policy Updates:
 - * CCSU's AAUP President Mary Mahoney stated that CSU's lawyer Stephen Adler is reviewing the new Sexual Assault protocols. She recommended that we wait to hear the findings of his review before we proceed with notifying the Faculty Senate or any other groups on campus regarding our concerns.
 - * The Office of Diversity and Equity arranged Title IX training in person in addition to online opportunities as many of us are not clear about the nature and implications of these changes to federal and local policies. Below is summary of a member who attended the in person training:
 - Two speakers from off campus agencies: one from CONSACs and the other from Prudence Crandall
 - Both spoke about the different types of resources and support they provide
 - Both agencies stated before we start speaking with the students, need to indicate to the students we are mandated reporters
 - Didn't mentioned anything about federal, local or campus policies
 - Lack of clarity on what is expected
 - CCW is asking for the Sexual Assault Subcommittee to connect and review the various policies

Subcommittees Updates:

- Women's History Luncheon
 - Heather Prescott is the Chair
 - Seeking input to determine if we should have a lecture and reception instead of a luncheon
 - Possibility of inviting a female athlete as our women's history month speaker maybe Melissa Harris-Perry
 - Discussion about sending out a survey to students to seeking their interest regarding various activities to increase participation
- Work Life Balance
 - Planning to coordinate a system-wide conference regarding work life balance best practices that would provide the opportunity to share some of what each campus is doing

Budget:

- As of November 1, 2014, $3,200.00 is left in OE. And $9,200.00 is left in DPS
- $200.00 contribution was approved to Women's Studies Social and Networking Happy Hour event
- Still in need of a Treasurer. Interested contact Fiona or Myrna
