

7th Annual High School Dance Festival

Dear Fellow Administrator or Dance Educator,

During these unprecedented times, The Central Connecticut State University Dance Education Program is excited to host the (Virtual) 7th Annual High School Dance Festival that will be held on Friday, December 3, 2021.

In celebration of your students' dance education and your past commitment to the festival, it is our pleasure to offer you this year's event free of charge for your students and your studio/ school. The program will include a wide variety of dance classes and the participatory dance education panel discussion.

Classes will be taught by CCSU faculty and Guest Teaching Artists in the following genres:

Jazz	Afro-Caribbean	Tap	Yoga for Dancers
Modern	Broadway	Hip Hop	Panel Discussion

To register your participation, please visit www.ccsu.edu/dance to link to the Google Form. Alternatively, connect through the QR code on this page. You will receive detailed festival information one week prior.

Deadline: November 30, 2021.

We celebrate what you are doing in the Dance Education field and look forward to virtually dancing with you!

Pascal Rekoert

CCSU Annual Dance Festival Chair

www.ccsu.edu/dance

A promotional poster for the CCSU's 7th Annual High School Dance Festival. The poster features a photograph of a dancer in a black, fringed costume performing a backbend. The text on the poster includes: "CCSU'S 7TH ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL DANCE FESTIVAL", "FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2021 8:30AM - 2PM", "AN ALL-DAY FREE VIRTUAL DANCE FESTIVAL", "featuring CCSU faculty and guest teaching artists", and "Register now at www.ccsu.edu/dance". The CCSU logo is visible in the bottom left corner of the poster.

