CCSU disseminates its Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy as required. The University’s Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, CCSU Sexual Harassment Policy, and the Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment are distributed annually to all employees via email transmission which is globally distributed and in hard copy to employees without email access. The Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement, Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment Policy, the BOR/CSCU Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Policy, and the CCSU complaint procedure and timetables are also posted on the ODE’s web page at http://www.ccsu.edu/diversity/ and are accessible to applicants, employees and students.

A summary of the objectives and goals set forth in the affirmative action plan are made available to the president, all vice presidents, chief officers, deans, directors, department heads, managers, and supervisors for distribution to all of their employees. Copies of the Affirmative Action Plan are maintained in the ODE and now it will be stored in the new Office of Equity and Inclusion, Office of the President, and additional locations around campus, including but not limited to the University’s Elihu Burritt Library and Human Resources. The final Affirmative Action Plan is made available to all employees for their review on the university’s website, and the above-mentioned locations. The period of review is no less than sixty (60) days (See copy of letter specifying the period of review in Supportive Materials).

All employees are given written notice that they may review and comment on the Affirmative Action Plan. The employees were specifically instructed to address all comments to the CDO and now will be addressed to the new Interim Vice President of the Office of Equity and Inclusion. A file is kept on all affirmative action related internal communications and comments received throughout the reporting period. Any new comments will be placed in this file and the dates such statements are received will be noted. The Affirmative Action Plan will report a summary of all employee comments and agency responses in each filing. During this reporting period, no comments were received during the reporting period.

Activity during this Reporting Period

The Affirmative Action Plan was made available for all employees to review and comment. Employees were notified on February 7, 2019 where copies of the Plan were located, the period of review and the dates within which they may submit comments regarding the Plan.
All Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity policy statements are reviewed annually to ensure that any changes in the law, which may have occurred, are included therein. An abridged version of the policy statements on Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity, as well as policy statements on Sexual Misconduct (including sexual harassment), and Non-discrimination for Persons with Disabilities are published in the Student Handbook, Faculty Handbook, and Faculty Guidelines on Policy and Procedures for Students with Disabilities. The Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy statement is published in the electronic Catalogue. In addition, the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity policy statement, Policy Regarding Persons with Disabilities, BOR Sexual Misconduct Policy, and the CCSU Procedures and Timetables for Processing of Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints as well as the University’s 2018-2019 hiring, promotion, and program goals can be accessed through the website at http://www.ccsu.edu/Diversity/.

The President’s Executive Committee was informed on affirmative action recruiting, hiring, and promotional efforts, as well as updates on affirmative action and non-discrimination law. The Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement and the Sexual Misconduct Policy, as well as program information and progress reports are presented to the committee yearly (see attached agendas in the Supportive Materials section).

The CDO met with the deans on a regular basis to discuss the policies, procedures and progress pertaining to affirmative action, in addition to their responsibility to aid in effectively implementing these policies. The new Interim Vice President of the Office of Equity and Inclusion (OEI) will continue to meet with the Executive Committee regarding the affirmative action plan and related diversity and inclusion programs.

The CDO provided the human resources staff, search committees and the Promotion and Tenure Committee with a periodic update of the status of hiring and promotion goal achievement, in addition to reminding these individuals of their responsibility to make every good faith effort to achieve the hiring and promotion goals when the opportunity occurs. The new Interim Vice President of OEI has begun to meet with human resources and staff to encourage them to continue to achieve affirmative action hiring goals and to diversify the faculty and staff.

During the reporting period, ODE distributed more than 2000 booklets containing the nondiscrimination and anti-harassment policies, resources and complaint procedures to students, faculty and staff.

Meeting with Search Committees

The CDO or designee met with all search committees seeking to fill unclassified vacancies to discuss the search procedures, affirmative action goals, recruitment strategies, evaluation of candidates, and non-discriminatory interviewing. She also updated the affirmative action plan forms, instructions for search committees, and the pre-employment inquiry guidelines distributed to the search committees. The ODE staff answered numerous inquiries from the search committees throughout the year related to the search procedures. In addition, the CDO met with the human resources staff to discuss the search procedures as well as answer any questions. In the unclassified search committees, 35% percent of the search committee members were people of color (Black, Hispanic, and Asian); 20% of search committee chairs were people of color; (56%) of search chairs were female.

During the reporting period, the Associate in Diversity and Equity or the CDO met with all search committees representing classified searches to discuss the search procedures, affirmative action goals, recruitment strategies, evaluation of candidates, and non-discriminatory interviewing.
New Employee Orientations

The Human Resources Office directs all new employees to the Central Connecticut State University sign up portal of the HR website. This website is dedicated to providing new employees information regarding the university including: The University Mission Statement, Statement on Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity, Sexual Harassment Policy, Health and Life Insurance, as well as personnel policies relating to compensation, attendance, and career mobility. This website is regularly updated to reflect changes in policies and procedures.

During the reporting period, the ODE provided all new employees copies of the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Policy Statement, Central Connecticut State University (CCSU) Sexual Harassment Policy, the CCSU Procedures and Timetables for Processing of Internal Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints, and the information on students with disabilities services. The new OEI Office has been handling these responsibilities and continues to provide copies of the AA/EEO policies to new employees.

The CDO presented the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement, CCSU’s Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment Policy and the BOR/CSCU Policy on Sexual Misconduct (including sexual harassment), and the CCSU Procedures and Timetables for Processing of Internal Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints at the New Employee (non-faculty) Orientation and copies of these policies were distributed to the new classified and unclassified employees.

The CDO also presented the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement, CCSU’s Nondiscrimination in Education and Employment Policy and the BOR/CSCU Policy on Sexual Misconduct (including sexual harassment), and the CCSU Procedures and Timetables for Processing of Internal Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints at the New Faculty Orientation and copies of these policies were distributed to the newly hired faculty members. The new Interim Vice President of the Office of Equity and Inclusion met with the new faculty and staff at the beginning of the Fall 2019 semester to provide them with her introduction and the changes she and President Toro want to see in the areas of Equity and Inclusion and she also provided them with policies and her contact number.

The Office of Marketing & Communications includes articles and pictures related to the activities and accomplishments in University publications as well as in the media of underrepresented group members who are part of the University community. This office publishes articles featuring Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity programs, reports and promotions of minority group members. Below is a sample of jointly sponsored events by the Office of Diversity and Equity and one or more of CCSU’s social organizations or departments: (For a more complete list of all cultural/diversity/equity events, see attachment detailing events offered during August 1, 2018 to July 31, 2019.) These programs included but were not limited to:

Stand Up CCSU Campaign
Stand Up CCSU is a student-led bystander intervention campaign that focuses on the prevention of sexual assault, intimate partner violence and stalking.

Students primarily lead stand up CCSU. In Fall 2018, recruitment began for the Spring 2019 Stand Up CCSU Community Organizer program. After an application and interview process, ten students were ultimately selected to be a part of the program. These students were provided a full day of training on sexual and interpersonal violence and prevention strategies. They then worked to plan events, host information tables, and create a poster campaign to educate the campus about bystander intervention.

- Tabling: Organizers regularly tabled in the Student Center and at major events across campus. They provided resources on advocacy as well as bystander intervention. Number of student contacts: 200 (approx.)
- Stand Up Day: At this outdoor event, the Stand Up Community Organizers partnered with campus and community organizations to provide interactive activities for CCSU students to practice and think deeply about bystander intervention. Number of participants: 400 (approx.)
- Poster Campaign: Community organizers developed a poster campaign with messages about victim advocacy and violence prevention. They created eight unique posters that were distributed in academic buildings, residence halls, athletic facilities and administrative buildings.
- Social Media: Photos, events, poster campaign promotion and links were shared on an on-going basis on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
- Classroom Presentations: The Office of Victim Advocacy offered classroom presentations to share information about the campaign and violence prevention. Number of student contacts: 80 (approx.)

Bringing in the Bystander

Bringing in the Bystander is a 90-minute training focused on sexual assault awareness and bystander intervention. The Office of Victim Advocacy and other trainers from departments across campus facilitated sessions with athletics and student organizations throughout the year. The program was also included during new student orientation and all incoming first-year students participated in a session. Number of sessions: 20
Number of student contacts: 1042

See University Events 2018-2019. Attachment in supportive documents area for a more detailed report of these events including the date, description and sponsoring university department(s).

Diversity and Sexual Harassment Prevention Training

State Mandated Diversity Training

The CDO will continue to schedule Title IX (including sexual harassment) and diversity training for all new employees as needed and will continue to report the scheduled sessions in CCSU’s annual filings.

Diversity Training is also periodically scheduled for the University’s managers and supervisors, including employees who supervise student workers. A copy of the materials utilized and/or distributed during the diversity training sessions is included within the “Supportive Material” subsection which follows this portion of the “Internal Communications” section.

Diversity Training Sessions

During this reporting period, five (5) sessions were conducted serving 201 employees. Every diversity training includes the following: protected definitions; policies and laws; ADA accommodations; hate crimes; internal complaint procedures; external complaint agencies, and role plays and scenario-based activities including the topic area.

At new faculty orientation, new faculty members were provided with information on sexual harassment, nondiscrimination, ADA, and sexual misconduct policies, and complaint procedure.

During the reporting period, at new faculty orientation, Rosa Rodríguez provided information on sexual harassment, nondiscrimination, ADA, and sexual misconduct policies, and complaint procedure. During the Fall 2019, Nancy Barcelo met with new faculty members and provided information on the new Office of Equity and Inclusion.

Title IX and Sexual Harassment Prevention Training

Title IX training has now been required for all full- and part-time employees including student employees and interns. This training has replaced the sexual harassment prevention training as a primary component of this training is sexual harassment prevention, including but not limited to, definitions, policies, laws, and scenarios.

This training was conducted by the ODE staff during the reporting period. The newly formed OEI staff will continue to conduct this training for staff and faculty members in the next reporting period. The in-person sessions typically are 3-hours in duration and focus on sexual harassment, gender discrimination, sexual assault, interpersonal violence and stalking. This training is also offered through an online program. While the law requires that all supervisory employees receive Sexual Harassment Prevention, CCSU had mandated that all employees complete sexual harassment prevention training either through an in-person session or via the online program up until 2014. In 2014, the BOR/CSCU required that all employees receive Title IX (including sexual harassment prevention) training on an annual basis. In the Title IX training (full and refresher) attendees are informed of the policies, definitions including hostile environment and quid pro quo and scenarios. This on-going/annual mandate continues to enhance our campus’ effectiveness in ensuring we are a campus free from workplace and educational discrimination.

Sexual Harassment Prevention Training for Supervisors is made available through in-person sessions for all supervisory employees who have not completed the three-hour in-person Title IX session. Such training conforms with the requirements of Connecticut General Statutes, Section 46a-54(15) (B).

Title IX/Sexual Harassment Sessions

During this reporting period, the CDO resumed meeting the requirements of Connecticut General Statutes § 46a-54(15) (B) by providing Title IX (sexual harassment prevention) training for newly hired supervisory employees. Such training is delivered by a variety of presenters and venues, such as the CCSU Office of Victim Advocacy, ODE Staff and faculty with expertise in conformance with the requirements of Connecticut General Statutes, Section 46a-54(15)(B). CCSU developed and implemented a Title IX training which includes sexual harassment, sexual violence, and stalking and intimate partner violence to the campus. A copy of the training session outline (via PowerPoint presentation) used during the sexual harassment (Title IX) training sessions is included within the “Supportive Material” subsection which follows this portion of the “Internal Communications” section.
The Residence Life Department requires that all Residence Assistants (RAs) attend a two-hour diversity training program every semester. Additionally the RAs received Title IX (sexual assault and sexual harassment prevention) training by Sarah Dodd, CCSU’s Victim Advocate.

The CDO will continue to schedule in-person Title IX, sexual harassment, and diversity training for all new employees as needed and will continue to report the scheduled sessions in CCSU’s annual filings.

On-line Training

The University utilizes several different on-line training modules. All faculty and staff have access to an on-line Title IX training, which can be taken annually. Throughout the 2018/2019 academic year, two-hundred and ten (210) employees took Title IX training on-line. Each spring students classified as seniors or graduate students are also required to complete a training focused on sexual misconduct. Both courses are interactive and contain many challenging and interesting real-life workplace situations. Incoming students are required to complete a different online program (Sexual Violence Prevention Program) on Title IX (including sexual harassment and sexual violence issues). One Thousand and forty-two (1042) students took the on-line training.

OTHER INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS:

Campaigns, University website, Job postings including EEO statement, posters including EEO statement, Sexual Harassment Posters: In almost every building, the University’s poster regarding sexual harassment are placed in acrylic holders. Along with each poster, we place information cards for people to take with them. We continually fill these on a monthly basis. See supportive materials for copy of poster and cards.
Good Afternoon,

As you know, New Faculty Orientation is one of our first opportunities to welcome new faculty members to the CCSU community. We hope that you are able to participate in this year’s engaging New Faculty Orientation event, which is scheduled for Thursday, August 22nd. Please note that there are some changes from the program we have run in previous years, but the overall goal remains the same – to welcome the new faculty and provide them with the information they need to get off to a healthy and productive start on campus. Please review the attached draft with suggested speaking times, and let me know as soon as possible if you have a conflict with your assigned time. If you have a handout you would like included in the information packet, please make sure to send 100 copies to the Office of the Provost, Davidson 111, by August 16th. Otherwise, you are welcome to hand out materials during your speaking time.

Thank you,

Subject: Annual Clery Report available

To the CCSU Community,

The latest edition of the Annual Security and Fire Report (also known as the Clery Report) is now available online here. The report is prepared annually by the CCSU Police Department in accordance to federal law (the “Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1990” and subsequent amendments).

The report contains statistics on specified crimes reported over the previous three calendar years, as well as specific information pertaining to campus security, alcohol and drug policies, sexual assault prevention and response, victims’ assistance programs, missing person reports, crime prevention, fire safety, and campus resources. Policies and procedures for campus-wide notifications and emergency response and evacuation are also included.

Please note: The crime statistics are only for certain crimes that occurred on campus, in off-campus buildings, property owned or controlled by the University, or on public property adjacent to campus.

All members of the campus community are encouraged to report crimes to the CCSU Police Department at (860) 832-2375. Emergencies or situations that may pose an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of our students, employees and visitors should immediately be reported by dialing 9-1-1 or by using one of the call boxes located throughout the campus.

If you are unable to download and/or print the report, hard copies may be obtained at the CCSU Police Department on East Street.

From: Office of the President
      Office of Diversity & Equity

According to a federal law known as the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, our school is required to disclose “statistics concerning the occurrence of certain criminal offenses reported to local law enforcement agencies or any official of the institution who is defined, as a Campus Security Authority.” After careful consideration, you have been designated a Campus Security Authority (CSA) at CCSU. Please review the below information regarding the role of the CSA and directions on how to register for your required training.

The Clery Act requires that CCSU disclose three general categories of crime statistics:

- Primary crimes: Criminal homicide (murder and non-negligent manslaughter, and negligent manslaughter); sex offenses (rape, fondling, incest, statutory rape); robbery; aggravated assault; burglary; motor vehicle theft; and arson.
- Hate Crimes: Any of the above primary crimes, and any incidents of larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, or destruction/damage/vandalism of property that were motivated by bias.
- VAWA Crimes: Dating violence, domestic violence and stalking.
- Arrests and referrals for disciplinary action: Arrests for liquor law violations, drug law violations and illegal weapons possession; referrals for liquor law violations, drug law violations, and illegal weapons possession.

We are required to disclose statistics for offenses that occur on campus, in or on non-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by our school, and public property within or immediately adjacent to our campus. Additionally, CCSU has a responsibility to notify the campus community about any crimes which pose an ongoing threat to the community, and, as such, CSAs are obligated by law to report crimes to the university police department. Even if you are not sure whether an ongoing threat exists, immediately contact the CCSU Police Department.
Register for Required Training

In order to understand your responsibility as a CSA, we ask that you complete a brief training by June 1, 2019. Four trainings have been scheduled. In order to register for a training please follow this link: Clery Training Registration

Also, attached to this e-mail you find the CCSU Campus Security Authority Reporting Form. If you are made aware of any crimes in our geographical reporting area, you will fill out this form and submit it to Jerry Erwin at the CCSU Police (erwinj@ccsu.edu or 860-832-2381).

If you have any questions about this request please contact Sarah Dodd (Diversity Associate) at sarahdodd@ccsu.edu or 860-832-1653.

Dear Central Family,

We are seeking your ideas! We need to increase our fall enrollment numbers for both incoming and continuing students? As faculty and staff who have direct contact with our students or as parents who have gone through the college recruitment and admissions process with your children, you likely have insights that could prove helpful to us.

What do prospective college students need to hear about CCSU? What we could be doing better to help our current students succeed in their studies at CCSU? These are just some of the questions for which we are seeking your feedback. To share your constructive ideas with me, please follow this link.

I appreciate your efforts and contributions in making CCSU a university we can all be proud of!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

I am pleased to share the news that the University has earned reaccreditation by the New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE) after determining we are “substantially in compliance” with accreditation standards. Also of note, the Doctor of Nurse Anesthesia Program was accepted and included within the University’s accreditation.

The Commission commended us for a “comprehensive and candid” self-study and a “clear governance process.” NECHE also praised us for making “significant gains in student learning outcomes.” This speaks volumes about our faculty and its efforts to advance and embrace assessment.

As we expected, there were several findings, but there were no surprises. In Fall 2020, we are required to submit a report highlighting advances in three areas. The NECHE update will include: the implementation of the University’s Strategic Plan; the progress toward achieving our enrollment goals; and assuring compliance with Title IX and Title IV requirements. I have every expectation that we will demonstrate advances in Fall 2020. Work is well underway to address deficiencies in the aforementioned areas, including the Action Plan to Change Campus Culture and our additional investment in staff and resources.

As part of our fifth year interim report due to NECHE in Fall 2023, the Commission has requested that we provide an update on our success in “clarifying expectations and demonstrated outcomes” of Board of Regents’ “Students First” and shared services initiatives. To view the full communication, please follow this link.

It is an honor to be part of this dedicated and committed team. My sincere appreciation to all of you who helped us through this intensive review and reaffirm our commitment to high educational standards.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Subject: Campus culture and LGBTQ incidents

Dear Central Family,

The turnout for the Blackout Rally last week was impressive, and I heartily applaud the students, faculty, and staff who took part. I am sorry to have missed the opportunity to voice my support and address concerns of the group. I was in Boston at a mandatory meeting critical to the University’s accreditation process. On Friday morning, I met with representatives from two student groups, PRIDE and the Black Student Union (BSU), whose members did an outstanding job bringing light to issues we must aggressively and honestly address.

In addition to the racist graffiti on campus targeting African Americans, there have been reports of other hateful acts, specifically directed at our LGBTQ community. Two weeks ago, an anti-gay brochure promoting conversion therapy was strategically displayed in a classroom where LGBTQ fiction is taught. In February, a sign outside the LGBTQ Center was ripped down, and a student in the Center reported overhearing several people outside of the Center using gay slurs. These cases are being actively investigated by CCSU Police.

There is no place on our campus for hatred and bullying – none! These incidents are deeply troubling to me, so I am asking you to “Give Your Voice to Diversity.” Shortly, you will receive an email about an event, organized by a variety of student groups and the Division of Student Affairs, to give us all an opportunity to share what diversity means to us.

Also, I am looking forward to the arrival of Dr. Nancy “Rusty” Barceló, a nationally recognized expert in diversity in higher education, as we work together to transform our campus into a safe and welcoming space. In a couple of weeks, Dr. Barceló will join us for a day to lead an open forum focused on diversity and inclusion. In July, she will begin her role as interim Chief Diversity Officer for the University.

Last week’s rally was a strong indication of the strength we have when we work together. I truly believe we are moving in a positive direction to becoming the inclusive and supportive environment we expect Central to be. As we continue the good fight, please remember you can share your campus culture concerns by posting anonymously to www.ccsu.edu/ccc.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

I am very pleased to announce that a nationally recognized expert in diversity, equity, and inclusion in higher education has been hired to lead the Office of Diversity and Equity on an interim basis.

Dr. Nancy “Rusty” Barceló will be joining us this summer after wrapping up her most recent work at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. As a diversity consultant, she led an external review and worked with the University’s chancellor to, among other initiatives, overhaul its sexual harassment policies and implement a new diversity plan.

Dr. Barcelo’s 30-year career in higher education began at the University of Iowa and has included various positions as a diversity administrator at the University of Washington and the University of Minnesota. She also served as president of Northern New Mexico College for five years.

She earned her B.A. in Social Work from Chico State University, M.A. in Recreational Education from the University of Iowa, and became the first Mexican-American to earn a Ph.D. from the University of Iowa.

I am confident Dr. Barceló will be an excellent agent for change at Central as we implement our 15-point Action Plan to Change CCSU Campus Culture. We will work together to do what is necessary to transform our campus into a safe environment for all and to restore faith and pride in Connecticut’s oldest public institution of higher education.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

We continue to press ahead to improve the campus culture, especially as it relates to sexual misconduct and bullying, and I want to update you on our progress.

Following the release of our independent investigations and task force reports in January and the hosting of an Open Forum, I began meeting with and have scheduled a series of small group conversations with survivors of sexual assault and representatives from our African American, Hispanic, and LGBTQ communities, among others. Though I have several more groups to meet with, the insights and feedback from participants have been informative.

Concurrently, I have been working with my Executive Committee to develop the “Action Plan to Change CCSU Campus Culture,” based on findings from our independent investigators and the report from the Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, & Campus Culture. While in draft form, we consulted with and sought feedback from the AAUP and SUOAF leadership, as well as the Faculty Senate President. The resulting Action Plan and its 15 key actions will guide us as we institute needed changes and launch initiatives at the departmental and university-wide levels (To view the full plan, follow this link).

While the plan was under development, we moved forward with a couple of needed steps. George Claffey, the interim Chief Information Officer, and his team are working to identify systems that could be used for institution-wide reporting, monitoring, & tracking of complaints and of the training of personnel. We also are close to administering a campus climate survey.

Many other actions will be completed within the next several months and the remaining few will be concluded by end of the calendar year. With the implementation of our Action Plan, it is my hope and expectation that we will soon see evidence of real and meaningful change of our campus culture.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President

I hope to see you there!

Subject: March 20 - Bassett Hall naming ceremony

CONNECTED TO OUR PAST
SAVE THE DATE
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 2019

We are renaming Social Sciences Hall to honor our first African American graduate:
Doctor D.O. Bassett.

Join us for the celebration:
Wednesday, March 20 - 6 p.m.
Dear Central Family,

I want to update you on the progress the Student Success Team (SST) and invite you to be part of the process of developing a comprehensive retention plan.

First, let me introduce our new Student Success Faculty Liaisons. Faculty from each school were invited to serve on the SST as liaisons to the faculty at large. I am greatly appreciative of the faculty who stepped up to take part in this important initiative. They are:

- Lisa Frank, professor of Finance;
- Laura Jacobson, assistant professor of Special Education & Interventions;
- Jim Mulrooney, professor of Biomolecular Science; and
- Mary Anne Nunn, associate professor of English.

Professor Nunn has an additional responsibility. As the liaison leader, she will serve as the faculty representative on the Enrollment Management Council.

As the semester progresses, we hope to add more faculty members to the team. In the meantime, the liaisons have devised a brief survey to capture the ways in which full- and part-time faculty define, consider, pursue, and face frustrations related to “student success.” I encourage you to take two or three minutes to respond to the survey questions Click here for survey. You have until March 1, and then the liaisons will compile the responses and share them with you.

On Friday, March 29, you are invited to join the Student Success Team for lunch and a discussion of your ideas for defining and effectively advancing the success of our students. The meeting will be held in Memorial Hall’s Connecticut Room from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Retention of our students and, ultimately, their attainment of an academic degree, must be among our top priorities. I thank you for making time to participate in and contribute to improving student success.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Subject: Moving CCSU forward - Your input is needed

Dear Central Partners,

As employers who hire Central Connecticut State University graduates, I thank you! Your experiences with our alumni has likely led to insights that would be extremely helpful as we develop a new strategic plan. I am hoping you will help us chart the future of CCSU. During the next 11 months, we will be hosting several events to inspire conversation about our strengths and elements of distinction, as well as the challenges public higher education is facing and the opportunities we might seize to overcome them.

The strategic plan will guide our work over the next several years and will convey a compelling and pragmatic vision for driving investment in what distinguishes Central as the oldest public university serving the State of Connecticut.

The Strategic Planning Steering Committee will host three open forums on Wednesday, Feb. 6, to gather feedback and answer questions about the plan. If you can, please join us at one of these events to share your observations and opinions. The forums will include smaller group discussions and conclude with a summary of the common themes that emerge.

STRATEGIC PLAN OPEN FORUMS
Feb. 6: 9:30 to 11 a.m. – Memorial Hall’s Constitution Room
    3 to 4:30 p.m. – Memorial Hall’s Constitution Room
    5 to 6:30 p.m. – Memorial Hall’s Constitution Room

Whether or not you attend one of the forums, we ask that you complete a survey. It will take about 10 minutes of your time and is available here.

Additional information about our strategic planning process is available at www.ccsu.edu/strategicplan.

I thank you for your continued support and efforts as we work together to build on Central’s long legacy of success!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

The long-awaited findings from the Shipman & Goodwin investigation and the review from the Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, & Campus Climate were recently delivered to me.

The reports support many of the sexual misconduct claims reported last April in the University’s student newspaper, The Recorder. I am disgusted and disheartened by what I have read in the reports. They indicate that two of our professors repeatedly engaged in sexual misconduct and inappropriate behavior with several students. Also disturbing are the apparent failures by administrators who, over the years, did not protect our students.

It is clear to me that a series of vital steps are required to ensure past misbehaviors, mistakes, and inaction are not repeated at this University and, certainly, not under my watch. Therefore, I am proceeding with a number of personnel and organizational changes.

I have begun the process of dismissing Joshua Perlstein and Thomas Delventhal, both professors of the Theatre Department. Professor Delventhal was placed on administrative leave last week and, as you probably are aware, Professor Perlstein has been on leave since April.

The investigation findings related specifically to Professor Perlstein include: significant evidence that he had a history of questionable interactions with female students; that he was involved in sexual misconduct with one or more students; he was untruthful about the extended period of time he was involved in a sexual relationship with a student, and attempted to conceal his problematic conduct because it would “put his job in jeopardy.”

Following up on student complaints about Professor Delventhal, the investigators report that he admitted to, over the years, kissing five students on the neck and/or forehead, that he was untruthful during his investigatory interview, and denied attempting to engage in any relationship with current or former students.

In addition to several procedural changes instituted last spring, I will oversee the reengineering of the Office of Diversity & Equity and the Human Resources Department. As part of that process, I soon will be announcing the appointment of new leadership for the Office of Diversity and Equity.

This is just the beginning. I also am moving ahead with the following initiatives:

- Identify and adopt an institution-wide reporting, monitoring, & tracking system to facilitate and maintain the collection and dissemination of information and data. This will enable the assessment of trends, issues, and retrieval of case information;
- Explore a new model for investigating sexual harassment, bullying, and misconduct on campus, rather than a “single investigator” to decrease individual bias or conflicts of interest;
- Administer an ongoing campus climate survey;
- Seek input from union leaders on how to achieve 100% employee participation in Title IX training; and
- Determine how best to incorporate educational material on Title IX, bullying, and civility into student programming.
Some of the changes are and will be guided by the final report submitted by the Task Force. At this time I extend my deep appreciation to the members of the Task Force who spent an incredible amount of time delving into the processes, procedures, communication, and programs related to sexual misconduct issues. Of note, the group also identified bullying on campus as another matter of concern, so I will be appointing a committee to examine that specific subject.

Additional information about the Task Force and its final report are available here. To view the three Shipman & Goodwin investigation reports, please follow this link.

To those who bravely shared their stories with our investigators, I am immensely grateful. This has been a painful process for all of those involved. During my recent meeting with the students, staff, and faculty of the Theatre Department, I assured them of my full and unwavering support, as well as my regret for all they are having to endure. I encourage each of you to be especially supportive and sensitive to our Theatre colleagues past and present.

As I've stated before, I am resolved to take the actions necessary to ensure our campus is a safe environment for all and to restore faith and pride in Connecticut's oldest public institution of higher education. This is not something I can accomplish on my own. I am counting on the help and support of the Central family to make substantive, lasting changes to our campus culture.

If you wish to discuss the reports with me, I invite you to join me tomorrow at 3 p.m. in Memorial Hall's Constitution Room.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

As you know, today is Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. I encourage you to set aside some time to reflect on Dr. King’s commitment to civil rights and social justice. Many individuals observe the holiday by participating in community service activities. As president of a university that views community engagement as a necessary component of higher education, I think that is a beautiful way to celebrate Dr. King’s legacy.

This reminds me of something Dr. King once said: “Make a career of humanity. Commit yourself to the noble struggle for equal rights. You will make a better person of yourself, a greater nation of your country, and a finer world to live in.”

We strive to cultivate a welcoming and supportive learning community for all through our commitment to respect, diversity, and inclusion. It is my belief that such connection will inspire you to follow Dr. King’s advice.

This Friday, we will consider additional aspects of Dr. King’s work at the annual CCSU Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast from 9 to 11 a.m. Our guest speaker, Arvia Walker, is a public policy specialist at Planned Parenthood of Southern New England. The Connecticut Women’s Education and Legal Fund recently honored Ms. Walker for her work in building the political power of women and girls, especially those of color. I anticipate a fascinating presentation from Ms. Walker and our other speakers, including Dr. Felton Best from the Philosophy Department and a student representative. If you can, join us for some breakfast and uplifting conversation, register here.

Meanwhile, take this day to celebrate our shared humanity and honor the memory of Dr. King.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Hi Rosa and Sarah,

Please note that President Toro will be away on October 12. She sends her regrets.

Colleagues,

Please join us in support of the Connecticut Breast Health Initiative's (CT BHI) annual fundraiser, the 2019 CT Race in the Park. Many of us have family, friends, or co-workers who have been affected by breast cancer. Let's honor them together and join Team CCSU in this cause.

The CT Race in the Park will be held on the morning of Saturday, May 11 in Walnut Hill Park, New Britain. The registration fee is $30.00 (adult) and $15.00 (age 0-17). All funds raised during this event remain in Connecticut in support of leading breast cancer research.

Last year, Team CCSU raised almost $8000. This year, the CCSU Police Department, Environmental Health & Safety, and Human Resources are partnering to spearhead this campaign. To register for Team CCSU, donate to the team, or pledge a participant follow this link to our team's webpage.

If you have any questions feel free to contact either one of the following team co-chairs:

Colleagues,

➢ The Spring 2019 In-Service Training courses are now available for review. The catalog can be viewed by clicking on the following link: http://bor.ct.edu/inservice/

➢ The IST courses provide a variety of cost-effective training opportunities to State of Connecticut employees.

➢ Applications must be approved by your supervisor and forwarded to Human Resources. Generally, these courses are available to you at no cost.

   o Please note that funds are limited for these training offerings and consideration will first be given for job-related courses. If you are approved for a course, please make every effort to attend.

   If you are unable to attend a course for which we have reserved a seat and you are unable to find a replacement, your department will be responsible for the course fee.

In order for the University to have sufficient time to comply with the In-Service Training Program deadline, University staff must submit completed individual applications to the Human Resources Department by Friday, January 25, 2019. Please note: The catalog references the deadline date of February 8, 2019 for State agencies to submit applications to the State In-Service Training Coordinator of this program, however, that is not the deadline for employees to submit their applications. The deadline date for CCSU employees to submit their individual applications to CCSU Human Resources is Friday, January 25, 2019.

Please complete the individual application form inserted with this email, obtain supervisor’s signature and forward to Claudia Richards-Meade in Human Resources (not to the State In-Service Training Coordinator directly).
Questions should be referred to Claudia Richards-Meade via email at Claudia.richardsmeade@ccsu.edu or by calling x20031.
Dear Central Family,

CSCU President Mark Ojakian has asked us for our input on a white paper that he will share with the state's next governor and legislature. His two primary goals are:

- Make them aware of who we are, what role we play in Connecticut and the lives of its residents, and what our vision is for the future.
- Advocate for new initiatives and resources to help carry out that vision.

We have one month until we must present our recommendations to the System Office. Given the limited time frame, it is not possible to meet with all of you. I do have meetings scheduled with a number of groups to solicit ideas. Among those groups are: the Executive Committee, deans and other key administrative leadership, the Integrated Planning Council, representatives from the Student Government Association and Graduate Student Association, and the Faculty Senate. To hear from as many of you as possible, we have created a web-based form where you will be able to respond to questions that will help shape our response to the System Office.

I realize the start of a new semester is demanding on your schedules, but I would greatly appreciate hearing your ideas — even if you are only able to respond to a couple of the questions. Please find the questions and response form here: https://form.jotform.com/82423635788972.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President

Subject: Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, and Campus Climate Open Forum Dates

Dear Central Family,

As you are likely aware, President Toro convened the CCSU Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, and Campus Climate to respond to the following charges:

- Assess CCSU's processes and procedures for the reporting and handling of sexual misconduct and bullying and review the organizational structure currently in place to support those processes;
- Review when and how an investigation is triggered;
- Analyze the communication process during the investigatory process, including how all parties are informed of an investigation's conclusion or findings;
- Examine programmatic initiatives currently in place to prevent sexual misconduct and other bullying behaviors; and
- Identify standards of best practices for processes, procedures, communication, education, and provide recommendations to implement the best practices.

To meet these charges, the CCSU Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, and Campus Climate will host two Open Forums to gather input from the entire CCSU community.

The forums will be held:
- Tuesday, September 11 from 3:30 – 5 PM (Memorial Hall, Constitution Room)
- Wednesday, September 12 from 3:30 – 5 PM (Mid-Campus Residence Hall, Multipurpose Room)

To elicit feedback from students, faculty, and staff that will inform the CCSU Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, and Campus Climate's charge to identify standards of best practices for processes, procedures, communication, education, and provide recommendations to implement the best practices for the creation of an inclusive and safe campus free of sexual harassment and bullying.

Proposed Agenda:
1. Welcome
2. Introduction of Task Force Members
3. Review of Task Force Charges and Timelines
4. Task Force Information and Data Gathering Process
5. Call for Community Input
6. Meeting Summary and Closure
We hope to see you there!

On behalf of the CCSU Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, and Campus Climate,

Richard Spada, Chair
Dear Central Family,

Now that the NEASC/NECHE campus visit is behind us, it is time to refocus on our future as a University. The Interim Strategic Plan, approved five months after my arrival in 2017, served us well for the short-term. Today, I announce the formation of a Steering Committee whose members will help lead us in the development of a new, comprehensive Strategic Plan.

The committee, which I will chair, represents many constituencies of our Central Family, from an alumnus and member of the business community to students, faculty and staff. I am grateful the following people have agreed to undertake this important mission for our University. They include:

   David Dauwalder, Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs
   Charlene Casamento, Chief Financial Officer
   Robert Wolff, Dean of the Ammon College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences
   Mark Jackson, Professor of Biology and Faculty Senate President
   Daniel Broyld, Assistant Professor of History
   Lisa Bigelow, Director of Institutional Advancement and Chair of the UPBC
   Yvonne Kirby, Director of Institutional Research and Assessment
   M. Suzanne C. Berry, Alumna and Principal Berry2 and Associates, LLC
   Kassandra Fruin, President of the Student Government Association
   Andres Cintron, President of the Graduate Student Association

The first step goal for the Steering Committee is to draft a framework that we will share with the University Planning & Budget Committee (UPBC) for its input. Once that feedback is integrated, the revised framework will be presented to the Integrated Planning Council (IPC) for approval. The framework will then serve as our guide in developing the strategic plan.

As we begin to formulate the plan, we will need to hear from you and from our communities. We will be seeking your ideas through open forums, email, and other communication channels. So, if you haven’t already, please spend a bit of time thinking about your vision for the future of our institution.

It is important to me that all voices are heard. We will be back in touch with you in the coming months.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

As many of you are aware, December 14th is the anniversary of the Sandy Hook School shooting, a tragedy that we all remember. Last year, many of us gathered to send the message of “Love Wins” in remembrance of the Márquez-Greene family and Nelba, who works among us in Davidson Hall as director of The CCSU Ana Grace Project. Her daughter, Ana Grace, was one of the children killed in the shooting.

This year, we are turning December 14 into a day of giving. CCSU, The Ana Grace Project and the Consolidated School District of New Britain are collaborating on the Love Wins Community Drive with the ultimate goal of making a difference in the lives of children and families in our communities.

Beginning in November, we will collect donations of toys, winter clothing, toiletries, and food (specific recommendations will be forthcoming). Instead of multiple campus efforts, we are encouraging all of our campus organizations to join us in one massive donation effort that will be delivered on the front steps of Davidson Hall on Friday, December 14.

We are excited to announce that NBC CT has agreed to partner with us to publicize the drive leading up to the event and, then, to cover the donation drop-off during its morning newscasts.

Taking our cue from Nelba and the many generous, passionate hearts on this campus and in the New Britain community, we know that acts of kindness greatly benefit the hearts and souls of both the receiver and the giver. I don’t think there is a better time of year to demonstrate this. The items we collect will be donated to New Britain Youth & Family Services, New Britain schools (hats and mittens are greatly needed), Maria’s Place food pantry, among other agencies.

We will be back in touch to share information on how you can assist in the collection.

In the meantime, if you have any questions, please email Courtney McDavid or call (860) 832-3000.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

You likely have heard about the effort to name Social Sciences Hall in honor of one of our most prestigious alumni. Not only was Ebenezer D. Bassett the first African American to graduate from the State Normal School (our founding institution) in 1853, the noted educator and influential activist became the first African American to attain a diplomatic appointment in 1869 as an ambassador to Haiti.

The Hartford Courant published an article on Thursday about the Bassett Memorialization Committee’s initiatives. Two weeks ago, WNPR featured an interview with two members of the committee, Janet Woodruff and Dr. Evelyn Newman-Phillips. You can listen to that interview here: https://soundcloud.com/wnpr.

The committee has accomplished a great deal in helping us understand and embrace our connections to Mr. Bassett’s storied past. Led by William Fothergill, an associate counselor in the Counseling & Wellness Center, the group of CCSU faculty and staff has established an annual campus celebration and humanitarian awards to honor Mr. Bassett’s legacy.

The committee has also worked hard to establish the Ebenezer D. Bassett Scholarship Fund recognizing the humanitarian spirit. It is awarded to students who have demonstrated their commitment to the improvement of civil rights and equality in their communities. Scholarship recipients come from underrepresented, non-traditional, and underprivileged groups with proven financial need and a drive for outstanding academic achievement.

I am making a contribution to the Bassett Scholarship and am asking you to consider doing so. Our goal is to endow the scholarship as soon as possible.

Thank you for all that you do on behalf of our institution and students!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
The Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, and Campus Climate wants to hear from you. A brief, anonymous survey will help inform the committee in its work to ensure Central is a more inclusive and safe community for all—a community free from sexual harassment and bullying.

Please take five minutes to complete the survey. It is available here, or you can follow this link www.CCSU.edu/taskforce. All responses are strictly confidential and contain no personal identifiers.

Thank you for taking a few moments to contribute to our efforts in improving our campus culture.

Dear Central Family,

You might recall that CSCU President Mark Ojakian requested we supply information for a white paper that he would present to the new governor on behalf of the system. He presented his report to the Board of Regents last Thursday.

In preparation for the information we would submit to President Ojakian, I met with a significant number of our stakeholders (alumni, Foundation Board members, student leaders, deans, academic department chairs, Faculty Senate representatives, the Integrated Planning Council, AAUP and SUOA leadership, the Executive Committee, and administrators) to brainstorm. I also reached out to faculty, staff, and students through an email offering an opportunity to share their thoughts via an online form.

Many of your ideas became the foundation for a white paper we produced and submitted to President Ojakian and the Board of Regents. The paper presents our vision for building upon Central’s strengths and resources to expand our role as a driving force, a social enabler, and a committed community partner. It will serve as a starting point for the conversations we are going to have as part of the process to develop the University’s new strategic plan. If you are interested in reading the report, you can find it on the Integrated Planning Council web page (for Downloadable PDF click here).

I am greatly appreciative of the thoughtful contributions so many of you shared with me. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

Help us turn December 14 into a day of giving! CCSU, The Ana Grace Project, and the Consolidated School District of New Britain are collaborating on the Love Wins Community Drive.

We are asking that donations be delivered to CCSU on Friday, December 14 between 6 a.m. and noon. Davidson Hall driveway on Stanley Street will be turned into a drive-up location, so people can drop off their items, grab a cup of cocoa, and chat with our team of volunteers.

We expect NBC CT will be live on scene for part of the morning, along with KISS 95.7 radio, as they help promote our efforts.

How can you be part of this heart-warming event?

1. Be a Donation Organizer: If you are willing to organize a donation box at your business, employer, or group, or you are willing to contact companies, community groups, or civic organizations on behalf of the Love Wins Community Drive, please let us know. Sign up here.

2. Be a Drop-off Volunteer: Help us collect donations in front of Davidson Hall. Please sign up for any hours you are available. Be sure to join us at noon in Founders Hall for a “thank you” pizza party. Sign up here.

Learn more about the community drive and the Ana Grace Project by watching NBC CT at 11 p.m. tonight when Nelba Márquez-Greene is interviewed by Keisha Grant. We’ll also post a link from the event web page: www.ccsu.edu/LoveWins.

Hope you’ll take part in this wonderful event!

Dear Central Family,

This morning I met with the CCSU Police Department to share two reports from Bernie Sullivan, assistant to the President for Safety. You may recall that I appointed him in June to temporarily take over management of the department after an independent investigation brought to light a series of troubling behavioral, procedural, and staffing issues in the department.

Mr. Sullivan was asked to identify and correct Police Department policies, procedures, and training and to evaluate staffing levels and the department’s budget. His reports are available here.

In the first report, Mr. Sullivan reviewed the alleged sexual assault of a female CCSU police officer by Officer Curtis Lollar. Based upon that review, Mr. Sullivan recommended that the administration “make every effort to keep Officer Lollar from returning to the department due to the nature of his behavior as determined by the investigation conducted by Shipman & Goodwin LLC.” Officer Lollar’s employment at CCSU was terminated on Sept. 21, 2018.

Mr. Sullivan’s comprehensive review of the CCSU Police Department corroborates the independent investigator’s findings that a culture of unprofessional and disrespectful behavior existed within the department, discipline was lacking, and that there were deficiencies in staffing, hiring, and budget. Under Mr. Sullivan’s leadership, and with my approval, a number of changes have been or are in the process of being implemented. They include the following:

Training
• Since July 2018, all Police Department supervisors attended a two-hour, in-person sexual harassment prevention training.
• In September, several police officers attended a training about strategies for working with sexual violence victims.
• The entire department will undergo sexual harassment and Title IX training while the University is on winter break.
• Supervisors will undergo training in areas such as evaluating staff and using progressive discipline and positive reinforcement with subordinates to enhance performance.

Policies & Procedures
• A new disciplinary policy is in place requiring police supervisors to review employee personnel files prior to issuing any counseling or discipline. This will ensure they are aware of any prior offenses and any discipline is reflected in evaluations. The police chief is required to conduct an annual inspection to ensure these procedures are compliant.
• A new background investigation sign-off has been implemented requiring multiple layers of review. It provides solid documentation as to the candidate’s position and prevents any single individual from having the final approval for hiring.
• Pre-background questionnaires will require candidate signatures to be notarized and affirmed as truthful. This will make it easier to decertify officers if, later, facts reveal the candidate was untruthful.

Staffing & Budget
• The Police Department will now report directly to me.
• The Police Department budget has been separated from the Administrative Services budget and is receiving $282,000 annually in additional funding.
• A new police sergeant will be hired.
• Two vacant police officer positions are being reclassified to positions of sergeants.
• Two vehicles will be purchased for the two new sergeants.
• The student cadet program is hiring five or more additional students.
• Three police recruits were hired in July, have been undergoing training at the Police Academy in Meriden, and will begin full-time duty in January 2019.
• A full-time, seasoned administrative assistant was reassigned to work with the department.
• A clerk typist position has been converted to an administrative assistant position.

In Mr. Sullivan’s view, the department’s slip in performance during the past several years was “caused by a lack of proper oversight by the previous administration.”

“With proper supervision, there is no reason to believe the department and its individual officers cannot provide appropriate police services to the campus community,” Sullivan noted.

I realize the reputation of the CCSU Police Department has been tarnished by our investigations. The poor choices and actions of a few do not represent the good work and dedication of the entire department. I am pleased at the progress that has been made in addressing deficiencies and that the culture within the department is improving. I am confident this will continue as our police force works to regain its stature as a professional, caring partner in making the CCSU campus a safe and welcoming environment for all.

Finally, I am greatly appreciative of Mr. Sullivan’s oversight and guidance during the last six months. His experience and insights as a seasoned law enforcement expert have been invaluable. Thank you Bernie!

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

I hope you will join me in congratulating the members of the Ebenezer D. Bassett Memorial Committee for their successful campaign to rename the Social Sciences Building in honor of Ebenezer Don Carlos Bassett, our first African-American graduate and a distinguished educator and activist.

For those who do not know, the Board of Regents for Higher Education voted today to support the resolution to rename the building after Mr. Bassett put forth by William Fothergill and the Committee.

More than a century after his graduation from the New Britain Normal School, Mr. Bassett’s principled character remains a model for our students. In taking advantage of the encouragement and opportunities offered to him, Mr. Bassett set a standard of excellence and diligence and made sure to pay it forward by creating opportunities for others.

The Memorial Committee has contributed to that legacy today, and I am very grateful for their perseverance in leading this initiative. The activities and conversations surrounding this effort has demonstrated to me once again that Central has the talent, vision, and the passion to spur many innovative curricular programs advancing our mission.

I look forward to sharing more details about when we will officially open the Ebenezer Don Carlos Bassett Social Sciences Hall. We are planning to have a celebration in the early spring.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

Have you noticed Davidson Hall is bathed in purple?

DECEMBER IS LOVE WINS MONTH AT CCSU.

We are asking that you wear purple on Fridays to honor our colleague Nelba Márquez-Greene, her family, and the community-building work of the CCSU-Ana Grace Project.

We would also appreciate your support on Friday, December 14 when we remember Nelba’s daughter Ana Grace, her classmates, and educators who lost their lives at Sandy Hook Elementary School six years ago. We are determined to turn December 14 into a day of giving through the Love Wins Community Drive.

CCSU, The Ana Grace Project, The Consolidated School District of New Britain, NBC CT, iHeart Radio, and many local businesses and organizations are collecting new toys, winter clothing, and baby items, along with non-perishable food. All donations will go to New Britain and Hartford agencies, along with Maria’s Place food pantry.

We are asking that donations are delivered to the front of Davidson Hall on December 14 between 6 a.m. and noon. Please go to our web page for additional information on how to volunteer and donate www.ccsu.edu/lovewins.

Although our hearts will be heavy that day, let them be lightened by the hope and joy the donations will provide to those in need.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

We are making progress in transforming the culture of strategic planning and budgeting at CCSU, and I thought you would appreciate an update.

Just over a year ago, we formed the Integrated Planning Council (IPC) to take the lead on approving initiatives that support the four goals of our Interim Strategic Plan (increasing student enrollment, maintaining academic excellence, expanding community engagement, and developing additional sources of revenue). A number of proposals were submitted to the IPC through the course of the year, and each of them underwent review (Those proposals can be viewed at www.ccsu.edu/ipc). In addition to informed data-driven, collaborative decisions, this process also enables the University to conduct extensive conversations about the pros and cons of each proposal.

Another advancement in our budgeting process was the implementation of the Integrated Budget Model (IBM) pilot. In the fall of 2017, the IPC appointed a workgroup to develop the IBM, which is founded on zero-based budgeting principles. This pilot supports my goal of transparency and strategic resource allocation. The department’s that participated in the pilot included: Athletics (volleyball, football, and administration); Information Technology (units reporting to the CAO); and one academic department from each school and the Ammon College (Educational Leadership, Biology, Finance, and Design).

I am pleased that both the UPBC and IPC recommended the continuation of the IBM pilot for a second year and will include all of Athletics, Informational Technology, and the School of Business. You can find additional information about the IBM process here.

Attached to this email is the FY 2020 budget calendar. I encourage you to review the traditional budget materials and pilot proposals and share your thoughts, comments, and ideas with the UPBC chair in accordance with the time frames.

Each of us has a unique lens to view this critical information. Your feedback and participation will ensure our continued success.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Reminder: The Strategic Planning Steering Committee will host three open forums on Wednesday, Feb. 6, to gather feedback and answer questions about the strategic planning process. Each forum will include smaller group discussions and conclude with a summary of the common themes that emerge. If you can, please join us at one of these events:

- Feb. 6: 9:30 to 11 a.m. – Memorial Hall’s Constitution Room
- 3 to 4:30 p.m. – Memorial Hall’s Constitution Room
- 5 to 6:30 p.m. – Memorial Hall’s Constitution Room

Another option for weighing in is participating in an online survey. It will take about 10 minutes of your time and is available here.

Additional information about our strategic planning process is available at www.ccsu.edu/strategicplan.

We hope to hear from you on Wednesday!

Dear Colleagues,

As communicated below, we are in the midst of the FY20 budget process. Traditional budget proposals for FY20, as well as the proposals for the three units participating in the second year of the Integrated Budget Model (IBM) pilot — the School of Business, Information Technology, and Intercollegiate Athletics — are now available on the UPBC website at www.ccsu.edu/UPBC under Current Documents.

On behalf of the University Planning & Budget Committee (UPBC), we are soliciting feedback from the campus community. Kindly provide your feedback either by submitting it via this link or forwarding it to me, preferably by email. We ask you submit your feedback by close of business on Friday, February 15 to give the UPBC optimum time to consider it and conduct any further research that may be required, prior to the budget presentations scheduled for February 22. All feedback received, no matter how it is submitted, will be shared with all voting members of the UPBC. If you choose to use the link to provide your feedback, you’ll see you can include your name, or submit it anonymously.

You will note that the budget submissions for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management are not yet posted to the site. We’ve extended the submission deadline for the Student Affairs proposal to February 14 given that Vice President Janeke joined us in late January. Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management Karissa Peckham will submit the Enrollment Management budget on February 22. Accordingly, your comments, questions, concerns, etc. on those proposals are welcome until close of business on Thursday, February 21 and Friday, March 1, respectively.

Looking ahead, you are invited to join the Student Success Team (SST) for lunch and a discussion of your ideas for defining and effectively advancing the success of our students. The meeting will be held on Friday, March 29 in Memorial Hall’s Connecticut Room from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

I thank you on behalf of the SST Faculty Liaisons,

Dear Colleagues,

The Student Success Faculty Liaisons are pleased to share the responses generated in a faculty survey asking the following questions:

- What do you see as the primary ways that faculty contribute to student success?
- What do you see as the most troublesome obstacles to student success at CCSU?
- What do you think faculty at CCSU could do to better promote and support student success?

We received 113 responses. Although not every respondent offered school or faculty information, here is the demographic breakdown that was reported. Of the respondents who gave this information:

- 38 were from the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences
- 10 were from the School of Business
- 24 were from the School of Education and Professional Studies
- 30 were from the School of Engineering Science and Technology

- 87 Full Time
- 26 Part Time

Thirteen departments asked for visits from one of the Liaisons, something we will try to achieve before the end of the semester, although a number of respondents requested such visits but did not specify departments.

Also attached to this e-mail is a more thematic characterization of the responses to the survey that we hope will facilitate our discussion on Friday, March 29 over lunch. Please consider joining us at 11:30 a.m. in the Connecticut Room.

We have reopened the survey and invite anyone who did not reply initially, or anyone who wishes to add to an earlier response, to do so ahead of lunch. Please follow this link to the survey.

We very much look forward to our conversations regarding this snapshot of ideas related to the faculty’s roles in student success.

Sincerely,

Lisa Frank, School of Business
Laura Jacobson, School of Education and Professional Studies
Jim Mulrooney, School of Engineering, Science, and Technology

Dear Colleagues:

We are pleased to announce that the 2019 Stand Up CCSU Campaign will commence in the coming weeks and invite you to engage with the campaign. Stand Up CCSU is an annual bystander awareness campaign organized by a group of CCSU student volunteers in the Office of Victim Advocacy, who are committed to preventing sexual and interpersonal violence on our campus. Stand Up CCSU encourages us all to stand up and take action against violence. Our goal is to engage the campus community in a dialogue on how each of us can actively play a part in creating an environment free of sexual and relationship violence.

There are a number of ways for you to get involved. They include:

➢ Classroom or Student Group Presentations
We offer a 10-15 minute classroom presentation co-facilitated by a trained student Community Organizer and Joanna Flanagan, Sexual Assault and Violence Prevention Specialist. The presentation focuses on bystander intervention techniques, information about sexual assault, and campus resources. Contact Joanna Flanagan at jflanagan@ccsu.edu to schedule.

➢ Provide Extra Credit/Incentive to Attend an Event
Stand Up CCSU is sponsoring three major events. You are encouraged to provide incentives to students to attend the events below. If you plan to incorporate an event in any of your classes, please contact Joanna Flanagan at jflanagan@ccsu.edu.

The Mask You Live In: Film Screening and Discussion
Wednesday, April 17, 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Philbrick Room, Student Center
Join us for a viewing of the documentary The Mask You Live In, which addresses the concept of masculinity and the impact on boys and young men as they try to stay true to themselves. A structured discussion will follow.

Stand Up Day
Tuesday, April 23, 2019; 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Student Center Circle
The Stand Up Community Organizers welcome everyone to stop by and learn about how you can stand up against sexual violence. Join us for interactive activities, photo opportunities, and giveaways.

Denim Day
Wednesday, April 24, 2019; 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Student Center Lobby Table
Stand Up CCSU will observe Denim Day, an international day to stand up against victim blaming. Denim Day began in 1992 as a protest against an Italian Supreme Court decision that overturned a rape conviction because the victim was wearing tight jeans. Protests erupted throughout Italy and spread across the globe, with protestors wearing jeans to protest victim blaming and to raise awareness that rape and sexual assault are never the victim’s fault. Join us by wearing denim and stopping by our information table in the student center to learn more about the history of Denim Day, how to take a stand against victim blaming, and to receive a button to show your support.

- Hang a Stand Up CCSU Poster in Your Office

CCSU students have developed their own poster campaign. Volunteer to hang a Stand Up CCSU poster in your office or work station by contacting Joanna Flanagan at jflanagan@ccsu.edu.

We thank you in advance for your participation and support of our campaign. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Dear Central Family,

As you know, today is Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. I encourage you to set aside some time to reflect on Dr. King’s commitment to civil rights and social justice. Many individuals observe the holiday by participating in community service activities. As president of a university that views community engagement as a necessary component of higher education, I think that is a beautiful way to celebrate Dr. King’s legacy.

This reminds me of something Dr. King once said: “Make a career of humanity. Commit yourself to the noble struggle for equal rights. You will make a better person of yourself, a greater nation of your country, and a finer world to live in.”

We strive to cultivate a welcoming and supportive learning community for all through our commitment to respect, diversity, and inclusion. It is my belief that such connection will inspire you to follow Dr. King’s advice.

This Friday, we will consider additional aspects of Dr. King’s work at the annual CCSU Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast from 9 to 11 a.m. Our guest speaker, Arvia Walker, is a public policy specialist at Planned Parenthood of Southern New England. The Connecticut Women’s Education and Legal Fund recently honored Ms. Walker for her work in building the political power of women and girls, especially those of color. I anticipate a fascinating presentation from Ms. Walker and our other speakers, including Dr. Felton Best from the Philosophy Department and a student representative. If you can join us for some breakfast and uplifting conversation, register here.

Meanwhile, take this day to celebrate our shared humanity and honor the memory of Dr. King.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Dr. Toro,

At a meeting this week, it was decided to honor the administration’s request that the faculty LGBTQ survey, funded by the Diversity grant we were awarded last semester, be postponed. The faculty agreed that the concern about survey fatigue was important and should be respected. This does mean some sacrifice on the part of faculty, however, who have already invested many hours in the research and preparation of the survey. The faculty hopes that the survey can go out next year, after the administration has conducted its own surveys, as the much more LGBTQ-specific research that the faculty survey is undertaking will be vital to shaping the mission of the LGBT Center and the priorities of a new full-time permanent director.

To that end, the faculty members of the Strategic Planning Committee of the LGBT Advisory Board (cc'ed here) request a meeting with you. As Dr. Barcelo has been extremely helpful to us in this process, we are hoping she can be present as well.

We know how full your schedule is, but if we could meet soon it would be very helpful as the LGBT Advisory Board is anxious to move forward on the plans for next year, and this way we could report back to them about the best ways they can help.

As always, we are grateful for all your support.

Sincerely,
William
Dear Central Family,

The turnout for the Blackout Rally last week was impressive, and I heartily applaud the students, faculty, and staff who took part. I am sorry to have missed the opportunity to voice my support and address concerns of the group. I was in Boston at a mandatory meeting critical to the University's accreditation process. On Friday morning, I met with representatives from two student groups, PRIDE and the Black Student Union (BSU), whose members did an outstanding job bringing light to issues we must aggressively and honestly address.

In addition to the racist graffiti on campus targeting African Americans, there have been reports of other hateful acts, specifically directed at our LGBTQ community. Two weeks ago, an anti-gay brochure promoting conversion therapy was strategically displayed in a classroom where LGBTQ fiction is taught. In February, a sign outside the LGBTQ Center was ripped down, and a student in the Center reported overhearing several people outside of the Center using gay slurs. These cases are being actively investigated by CCSU Police.

There is no place on our campus for hatred and bullying—none! These incidents are deeply troubling to me, so I am asking you to "Give Your Voice to Diversity." Shortly, you will receive an email about an event, organized by a variety of student groups and the Division of Student Affairs, to give us all an opportunity to share what diversity means to us.

Also, I am looking forward to the arrival of Dr. Nancy "Rusty" Barceló, a nationally recognized expert in diversity in higher education, as we work together to transform our campus into a safe and welcoming space. In a couple of weeks, Dr. Barceló will join us for a day to lead an open forum focused on diversity and inclusion. In July, she will begin her role as interim Chief Diversity Officer for the University.

Last week's rally was a strong indication of the strength we have when we work together. I truly believe we are moving in a positive direction to becoming the inclusive and supportive environment we expect Central to be. As we continue the good fight, please remember you can share your campus culture concerns by posting anonymously to www.ccsu.edu/ccc.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Colleagues,

We are excited to announce Systematic Reflections, a peer-reviewed publication put forth by the Center for Teaching and Faculty Development. Systematic Reflections serves as a reinvigoration of Central’s original monograph series, Systematic Reflections on the Scholarship of Teaching at Central Connecticut State University, originally edited by Dr. Paulette Lemma. This effort will feature a single volume per academic year with multiple issues, each focused on a campus-wide theme or initiative of interest.

The first issue of the reinvigorated series will follow in the tradition of the original series and focus on innovation in the classroom. Innovation in the classroom is broadly interpreted to include: new and novel pedagogical techniques; applications of tried and true techniques in experimental and/or experiential ways; the use of virtual reality to enhance student engagement; development and/or redesign of campus centers and programs including the cultural centers, eSports, virtual reality, FYE, etc.

Initial proposals for consideration should be approximately 500 words long, and be accompanied by sample references and a brief (i.e., no more than 100 word) biographical statement.

While the call is open to multiple interpretations, items suitable for submission could include:
- Notes and letters – in general these submissions would be 1,000-2,000 words (excluding references and works cited) focused on an individual technique, tool, or experience;
- Case studies – in general case studies would be comprehensive overviews of an individual technique, tool, or activity (2,000-5,000 words, excluding references and works cited);
- Research study – in general a complete research study would be 2,500 – 8,000 words (excluding references and works cited) themed around an individual innovation, tool, technique, or experience. Ideally these studies would present an innovation along with evidence of its effectiveness or anticipated effectiveness in the classroom.
- Works in excess of 8,000 words will be considered on a case-by-case basis, but prior approval from the co-editors should be sought prior to submission.

Systematic Reflections will be co-edited by the Faculty Director of the CTFD, Kristine Larsen, and the interim Associate Vice President of Graduate Studies, Research, and Faculty Development, Christina Robinson, and employ the APA’s in-line citation style. All contributions will be available as on-line, Open Access, e-publications. Hard copies will be available in the Elihu Burritt Library and provided free-of-charge to all contributors.

Timeline for Volume 1:
- Preliminary proposals due via e-mail to CTFD@CCSU.edu by noon on 12/16/2019
- Initial accept/reject decisions provided to authors by noon on 1/1/2020
Please note that preliminary acceptance of a proposal does not guarantee final acceptance, but every effort will be made to work with authors to achieve publication in Systematic Reflections.

- Full manuscripts due via e-mail to CTFD@CCSU.edu by noon on 3/16/2020
- Initial feedback provided to authors by noon on 4/1/2020
- Final revisions due via e-mail to CTFD@CCSU.edu by noon on 5/1/2020

If you have an idea and would like to contribute to the collection or have questions about the suitability of your idea, please contact Dr. Kristine Larsen via Larsen@ccsu.edu or Dr. Christina Robinson via ChristinaRobinson@ccsu.edu.

Warmly,

Kristine Larsen and Christina Robinson

Dear Colleagues,

Various holidays are observed on days classes are scheduled to meet throughout the academic year. Students observing these holidays are considered officially excused from classes and it is suggested that faculty not give exams on major religious holidays. Everyone should also be considerate of religious commitments of observing students and faculty when scheduling meetings and academic events.

A comprehensive listing of religious holidays can be found by clicking on the links below for 2019 and 2020. Observing full-time faculty will charge their absence to Personal Leave (PL).

Best regards,

Dear Central Family,

We continue to press ahead to improve the campus culture, especially as it relates to sexual misconduct and bullying, and I want to update you on our progress.

Following the release of our independent investigations and task force reports in January and the hosting of an Open Forum, I began meeting with and have scheduled a series of small group conversations with survivors of sexual assault and representatives from our African American, Hispanic, and LGBTQ communities, among others. Though I have several more groups to meet with, the insights and feedback from participants have been informative.

Concurrently, I have been working with my Executive Committee to develop the “Action Plan to Change CCSU Campus Culture,” based on findings from our independent investigators and the report from the Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying, & Campus Culture. While in draft form, we consulted with and sought feedback from the AAUP and SUOAF leadership, as well as the Faculty Senate President. The resulting Action Plan and its 15 key actions will guide us as we institute needed changes and launch initiatives at the departmental and university-wide levels (To view the full plan, follow this link).

While the plan was under development, we moved forward with a couple of needed steps. George Claffey, the interim Chief Information Officer, and his team are working to identify systems that could be used for institution-wide reporting, monitoring, & tracking of complaints and of the training of personnel. We also are close to administering a campus climate survey.

Many other actions will be completed within the next several months and the remaining few will be concluded by end of the calendar year. With the implementation of our Action Plan, it is my hope and expectation that we will soon see evidence of real and meaningful change of our campus culture.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

Some of you are away on summer break, but I thought it important to keep you informed of several developments related to the Professor Joshua Perlstein investigation and efforts to improve our campus culture. During the next several days, you might be reading or seeing a second round of news stories about the reports of sexual and behavioral misconduct by Professor Perlstein. We just released some documents as part of an on-going search and review of materials related to complaints against Perlstein. Several media outlets have requested copies of those documents through the Freedom of Information Act.

In responding to the media FOIA requests, I also released the following statement:

> It is likely that we will never know or understand all the circumstances that led to some of the past decisions that were made in reference to Professor Joshua Perlstein. After reading documents recently discovered as part of our investigation into Professor Perlstein, I fully believe there are a number of incidents I would have handled quite differently had I been leading the University at the time.

> It remains clear to me that we need to fix communication breakdowns and hold people accountable for their actions and others for their apparent lack of responsiveness. I am confident that the special team I brought in from the outside to thoroughly investigate reported behaviors by Professor Perlstein and the comprehensive review being conducted by the task force I appointed, will serve to inform our next steps in assuring our students, faculty, and staff that CCSU is a safe, welcoming environment for all.

> The Collective Bargaining Agreement prohibits me from taking certain actions at this time. I am working to expedite the appropriate processes. In the meantime, Professor Perlstein remains on administrative leave.

The outside investigators from Shipman & Goodwin are in the process of reviewing thousands of pages of documents. They have interviewed 15 or so people with more to come. I hope to receive a final report on their findings at the end of the summer.

The second meeting of the Campus Culture Task Force will be held tomorrow. The web page: http://www.ccsu.edu/culturetaskforce/ has been created to keep you informed of the committee’s progress.

As a reminder, we encourage you to share concerns or ideas you might have about campus culture by using this form: http://www2.ccsu.edu/ccc/. Posting to this site is anonymous and confidential. However, if you are sharing serious concerns about an individual’s behavior, please consider supplying your contact information so we can ask you follow-up questions.

I will continue to keep you updated as we move forward in our efforts to accomplish meaningful, enduring change to our campus culture.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

We are about to make public the findings of a very troubling investigation into issues and concerns involving the CCSU Police Department. I am deeply disturbed and saddened by the findings (the full report can be viewed here).

There is significant evidence that a sexual assault complaint by one of the department’s own officers was inappropriately handled when the incident was first reported in 2016. I am particularly troubled as to how the department’s chain of command did not, in a timely manner, conduct an investigation when the sexual assault was first reported.

Among other findings the investigators reported:

- Several police officers were hired by the CCSU Police Department even though background checks found evidence of significant discipline or other disqualifying performance issues in the past;
- An informal environment exists within the department, including relaxed professional standards and a fraternity-like environment, including inappropriate behavior, banter, or horseplay;
- Required sexual harassment prevention and other trainings are not taken seriously and serve as additional evidence that diversity and equity principles are not respected;
- A pervasive use of inappropriate gender labels for women and perception that the work of females is subjected to harsher criticism;
- Belief that expressing concern and/or opinion about the treatment of women in the department results in discrimination and retaliation; and
- Concern that all shifts are not staffed with a ranking, supervisor officer.

While we look deeper into the concerns brought to light by the investigation, today I made personnel changes to mitigate future issues. I want to assure our CCSU family and the public that the past environment, behaviors, and attitudes within the CCSU Police Department are not acceptable.

Among the immediate first steps, Bernard R. Sullivan, retired Commissioner of Public Safety and former Hartford Police Chief, has been hired to serve as CCSU’s Assistant to the President for Safety. In addition to overseeing the police department, Sullivan will be charged to identify and correct defective procedures, policies, and training, evaluate staffing levels and budgetary issues.
He also will determine what means are necessary to restore professionalism to the department while building trust among its employees, the CCSU community, and the public and take disciplinary action where appropriate. This mission is not new to Sullivan. He was selected by former Governor William O'Neill in 1989 to take the helm of the Connecticut State Police when it was embroiled in controversy and worked to rebuild the force and restore its credibility.

Today, I placed Chief Administrative Officer Richard Bachoo on paid administrative leave pending an investigation. His responsibilities have been reassigned to ensure the campus operates smoothly and efficiently. Until further notice:

- Facilities Management and Environmental Health & Safety will be headed by Sal Cintorino, Assistant Chief Administrative Officer, and he will report directly to me;

- Information Technology will be headed by George F. Claffey, Jr., who will continue in his position as the Chief Information Officer for Charter Oak State College on a part-time basis; and

- Event Management will report to Chief Financial Officer Charlene Casamento.

Further, the Office of Diversity and Equity will undergo further review to ensure its investigations are conducted in a prompt, fair, and unbiased manner.

Indeed, these are very challenging times for us all. I repeat my pledge to you that I remain absolutely committed to taking the necessary steps to ensure the CCSU campus is a welcoming, safe environment for all.

If you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to email me at toro@ccsu.edu or go to www.ccsu.edu/ccc to anonymously share information.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

Dear Central Family,

I have some wonderful news to share. Alumnus William J. Mann, an award-winning biographer, historian, and LGBTQ activist, has agreed to become the new director of our LGBT Center and join the History Department as a full-time faculty member. He also will become a member of the Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies program and will work with the English Department to develop more interdisciplinary, LGBTQ-themed courses.

I am very pleased to have someone of Professor Mann’s stature and experience become more deeply involved at Central. His new position will unite his academic work with the critical mission of our LGBT Center and the unique GLBTQ Archive housed in the University’s Burritt Library. Under his leadership, the LGBT Center will expand and thrive as a critical resource in helping our students acquire the knowledge and develop the beliefs and approaches for valuing our differences as human beings.

Professor Mann earned a B.S. in history from CCSU in 1984. He has been teaching courses on LGBT history and popular culture on a part-time basis for the last several years. During the fall semester, he will teach the History of AIDS and a public history project focused on uncovering mysteries in CCSU’s GLBTQ archive.

He has been active in the local and national LGBTQ activist and literary communities since his college days. He has written 14 books, including Tinseltown (Winner of the 2015 Edgar Award for best true crime) and The Wars of the Roosevelts (2016). Many of his books consider the LGBT experience in some way.

In addition to welcoming Professor Mann, I wish to thank Kathy Hermes, professor and chair of the History Department, for her leadership in helping CCSU develop needed resources and academic offerings to become an LGBTQ-friendly university.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President

Dear Central Family,

I want to thank the Faculty Senate for redirecting the focus of our previously scheduled Open Forum so that we could address the critical issue of our campus culture. I also am appreciative that, given the demands at this time of year, so many of you were able to attend.

In my opening remarks at the forum, I expressed deep concern about the information coming to light, during the past week, of a faculty member’s reputation and long history of alleged sexual misconduct and other abuses.

This behavior on our campus and in our community and the practice of minimizing such behavior must end. I am passionately committed, as your president and as a woman, to follow this to the end. Certain aspects of this problem – the behaviors and attitudes of the past – I cannot change. As for those responsibilities and policies over which I do have the authority, I pledge to you significant change.

My two major goals at the forum were to provide an update on where our investigations stand and to listen to you.

The updates I can highlight without comprising the integrity of our investigations include:

Central’s policy that complaints must be filed within 90 days of an incident was set decades ago. Though it is legal, in today’s environment we must review the policy.

To immediately address my concerns about communications, we launched the Campus Culture Concerns webpage yesterday. It provides a new tool to expedite communication from faculty, staff, and students to my administration. A link to that page is available here.

I am establishing a Task Force that will be charged with identifying best practices in these areas to help determine our next steps.

Meaningful, enduring change does not come easily, nor does it take place in a vacuum. I will continue to reach out to you for additional input, expertise, and participation.

We have much to do to examine what has and has not happened in the past while we cultivate a healthier campus culture, one that is inclusive and safe.

To read my full statement from yesterday’s forum, please go here.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

I promised to keep you updated on our investigation into how sexual misconduct complaints were handled in the past and in setting a new standard for how they are handled in the future.

To be clear about what sexual misconduct refers to, this includes intimate partner violence, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, or sexual harassment involving faculty, staff, and/or students.

The investigation by a team from the law firm Shipman & Goodwin is pushing forward. The attorneys have reviewed records and are now conducting interviews.

Our own internal review, which is ongoing, has highlighted two key areas in which we are able to make immediate changes. These procedural adjustments include:

Records Retention
Effective immediately, I have instituted a new policy. The offices of Human Resources, Diversity & Equity, and University Counsel have been directed to save records in their offices even if, by state guidelines, they could be destroyed.

Reporting Time Limit
We reviewed the two-decade-old procedure requiring complaints to be filed within 90 days of an incident. Effective this week, there is no time limit for the filing of complaints involving sexual misconduct allegations.

We are making progress in forming the Task Force that will examine a number of issues related to the handling of sexual misconduct complaints and concerns. I am working with the leadership of the AAUP and SUOAF to identify candidates for the Task Force. The panel will also include several people from outside the University community.

We have much more work to do, but this is a start in ensuring the safety and well-being of our students, faculty, and staff.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

I am very pleased to announce the formation of our new Task Force on Sexual Misconduct & Campus Climate. The work undertaken by this group, along with its findings and recommendations, will provide critical knowledge and a historical perspective that will drive our mission forward to ensure Central is a welcoming, safe place for all.

To identify candidates for the Task Force, I consulted with experts on and off campus and collaborated with the union leadership representing our faculty and staff. I am grateful to alumnus Richard Spada, an international leader in developing inclusive and accessible communities through effective leadership, management and organization, for agreeing to serve as the chair. The Task Force members are:

- Richard Spada, Chair of the Task Force & Sr. Global Manager of Diversity and Inclusion, Novartis
- Bill Panetta, (Retired) Director of Leadership Development, United Technologies
- Ululy Martinez, Attorney
- Victoria Minervino, CCSU Student Government Association
- Kristina Rodrigues, CCSU Student Government Association
- William Fothergill, Associate Counselor, Student Wellness Services - Counseling
- Jean Alicantro, Director of Residence Life
- Fiona Pearson, Professor, Department of Sociology; Member of the Committee on the Concerns of Women; Co-Chair, Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies Program
- Shelly Jones, Associate Professor, Department of Mathematical Sciences
- Sinead Ruane, Assistant Professor, Department of Management and Organization
- Jeremy Visone, Assistant Professor, Educational Leadership, Policy and Instructional Technology
- Cecilla Perez-Colon, Contract Compliance Specialist, Business Services
- Yvonne Kirby, Director of Institutional Research and Assessment
- Natalie Ford, Secretary of the CCSU Learning Center

The Task Force will be charged with the following objectives:

- Assess CCSU’s processes and procedures for the reporting and handling of concerns and complaints of sexual misconduct and review the organizational structure currently in place to support those processes;
- Review when and how an investigation is triggered;
- Analyze the communication process during the investigatory process, including how all parties are informed of an investigation’s conclusion or finding;
- Examine programmatic initiatives currently in place to prevent sexual misconduct behaviors;
- Identify standards of best practices for processes, procedures, communication, and education; and provide recommendations to implement best practices.
The departments and programs we expect will be contributing to the inquiry and body of knowledge are (but are not limited to): the Office of Diversity & Equity, the Department of Human Resources, the Women’s Center, the Committee on the Concerns of Women, the Office of Victim Advocacy & Violence Prevention, the Office of Student Conduct, and the Sexual Assault and Interpersonal Violence Resource Team (SART).

I am grateful to the members of the Task Force who will be working through the summer, with the expectation that they will conclude their work as soon as possible. They have a great deal of work ahead of them, and I thank them for making the commitment to help us set a new standard for the campus culture at CCSU.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro
President
Dear Central Family,

I am pleased with the progress being made by the Task Force on Sexual Misconduct and Campus Climate. As you might recall, I charged this group with providing recommendations for ensuring that our campus is a more inclusive and safe community for students, faculty, and staff—a community free from sexual harassment and bullying.

The task force is now ready to begin its comprehensive information and data gathering processes, and your assistance is needed. I am counting on you to provide your thoughts and ideas on improving our campus culture. Here is how you can help:

1) Click on this link and you will be directed to the Campus Culture Concerns web page where you can anonymously provide your thoughts and ideas;
2) Participate in one of two open forums hosted by the task force to be held September 11 and September 12; and,
3) Complete an anonymous online input survey which will be distributed via email to the campus community in September.

It is my belief that, collectively, we have the information, knowledge, and ideas necessary to help CCSU become a campus where safety and well-being are our top priorities.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

This Wednesday 2/28/18 meeting will be rescheduled because of Spring Break upcoming and CUIWFA Atlanta Conference. College and University Work Family Association Conference in Atlanta, GA
Leah Glaser, Fiona Pearson will be attending. Will wait to have next Subcommittee meeting in March.

Victor Costanza has been very supportive of Child Care Center. Reviewed drop in center proposal with him a week ago. SGA is supportive at this time, though only if used by students. The Portland State center was looked at and they use student activity fee. Here could add $5.00. Fiona Pearson plans to present the proposal to SGA's next meeting.

Louise Williams of AAUP is forming a Child Care Committee. For AAUP there are things that one can do with regards to maternity leave, e.g., stop tenure clock, but puts salary back a year. SUGAF may have wording regarding maternity leave. Perception that there are no consistent rules for maternity/paternity leave between Departments/Chairs/Deans was also mentioned.
SU Campus Safety Subcommittee

J Threat Assessment Team - Presentations in Davidson Hall this month

A student reported being followed, two of the blue light phones did not work and student's cell phone was working. They went to a club meeting to talk to them and throw off follower rather than walking directly to dorm. Club member(s) walked them to dorm. A mention was made that this was second time this has happened to one of these students. Student report to Women’s Center was made towards the end of Fall 2017 semester.

W member reviewed response from Richard Basho - THomas are checked once per month and Safety Walk in January - the recommendations were mentioned to Facilities staff and it was that lighting on campus is adequate. Need to follow up as to what is meant by ‘adequate’. May check light meter. Safety Walk found areas, e.g., walkways found that were either very dark or light was in a. Safety Walk in January - did not check the blue light phones.

Recommendation was made to create a statement to Facilities for more regular checks of the blue light ones.

One area of concern:

1) Campus Safety
2) Threat Assessment Team - issues seem to be addressed after they happen.
3) Violence Prevention Policy - standard of Regents policy - policies differ - Faculty/Staff Policies

Question made if they can standardize policies and put on front of each main webpage. They are incomplete, gray areas, unclear terms. Waiting on response to request to standardize policies across impuses/BCR.

OR could not find a CCUS policy - others were easier to find, but need to be clearer and more visible.

Subcommittee Meeting Schedules

need to meet at least once a month, and at least one week before 3/26 meeting with Dr. Toro.

Women of Color Subcommittee meets every other Monday at 12:00 pm, except when CCW General meeting is scheduled. Olga will check with Jackie for when next meeting is scheduled.

Current Searches

VP of Student Affairs - in process.
Dean - SEPS - will be available
Dean - CLASS
Nicholas D’Agostino’s position in Office of Diversity and Equity - On web
Library - On web
SWS Counselor - On web

Dean - SEPS - 2 candidates, 3rd pulled out, one active candidate is believed to be a woman, and interviews are upcoming.

Could be more proactive. There always is the opportunity to reopen a search, except for high level positions such as Provost position.

Search Committee may be diverse, what are we doing to solicit more diverse applicant pools? Many applicants are removed from applicant pool because of not following application directions.

Other positions have no search committee - e.g., current SWS Counselor opening has no search committee (at time of this CCW meeting). The position opening has to be announced internally for 10 days first.

SUCAF - If hire is internal, no search committee is required. The search can go external if more candidates are wanted. This is more critical with higher positions such as Provost, VP’s, etc. Rosa Rodriguez looks at all hiring and searches.

Create statement like done for Provost Search. Do statement now rather than when interviews are already on campus. Provide a statement to Chair at high level, Faculty Senate President, Human Resources, Office of Diversity & Equity, Presidents of our unions, maybe identified Managers.

Question about adding statement to Faculty Senate agenda. The Faculty Senate Personnel Committee is not functioning currently. Urged Faculty Senate to take a stance.

Discussed providing CCW member(s) on rotating basis to form either a Search Subcommittee or as a representative of CCW at Searches. Would have to go through Dr. Toro for approval. Could make recommendation, possibly to Rosa Rodriguez?

1) Create Statement - revise statement used for Provost Search, develop list of who it is to be sent to
2) Request to Represent CCW position at Search Committee, Ask Rosa Rodriguez

Scholarship Subcommittee

Debra Cronin and Melanie Meyers have been selected as co-recipients of the Ruth Boyea Scholarship for 2018. Many thanks to Susan Gilmore and Jacqueline Cobbina-Bolvin for the hard work they put in reviewing the applications with me. - Kristine Larsen

There was discussion of having a luncheon for Ruth Boyea Scholarship recipients. Last year the CCSU Foundation had a luncheon to recognize scholarship recipients. CCW could host a meeting with refreshments and take pictures of scholarship recipients.

Motion made by Jacqueline Cobbina-Bolvin to host a gathering at CCW last general meeting for the scholarship recipients. Myrna Garcia-Bowen seconded the motion. Vote was unanimous approval.

Work-Life Balance Subcommittee

Discussed progress of support for Child Care Center - will keep in communication with SGA, met with President Toro, SGA support was withdrawn, with primary concern being the $5 Student Activity fee addition, procedural questions with that. President Toro requested to meet with the Budget Office, SGA and Fiona Pearson to review Childcare Center proposal.

Louise Williams of AAUP is forming a Child Care Committee. Working on a Resolution for Child Care, copy was given to CCW members present and members of WLB Subcommittee to review. Comments are requested. CCSU AAUP is also reviewing the draft resolution. Want to move this quickly so can lobby with Legislature.

Subcommittee Involvement

Question was raised as to how often Subcommittees are meeting. How well are the Subcommittees working?
To increase Subcommittee involvement is for next academic year, could have standing meetings where people sign up for Subcommittees according to the meeting time(s) they can make. As part of this, have different Subcommittees meet on different days.

Possibly have a set of issues that are worked on across all Subcommittees. Decide as a group what we can tackle.
Meeting 3/26/18

Meeting with President Toro

Dr. Toro apologized that she is unable to attend meeting today due to an urgent matter.
Steve Ngazinde will communicate with the President's Office about future meeting date and will update.

Other administrators CCW seemed not truly advisory and we would like to think that this has good. In the past CCW did meet with CCSU President, including CCW Co-Chairs presenting Annual ris.

Are there issues, ideas, concerns to present to Dr. Toro?
Need a real campus climate survey
Drop in Child Care Center
Sexual Misconduct Policy on syllabus
Identify CCW successes -- accomplishments and obstacles met?
Gather input/feedback from Chairs of the different Subcommittees

Debra Cronin is a graduate student in the Marriage and Family Therapy program. A graduate of the US Merchant Marine Academy, Debra was an active member of the school’s Society for Women Engineers and as a Senior year officer led the mentoring of underclassmen, especially those struggling academically. After a career in the engineering world, she became a yoga instructor and returned to college for her Masters. She has been a Cadette Girl Scout Troop leader since 2009 and developed a Mindfulness training program for 4th graders in East Hartford. On campus she is a charter member of our chapter of Delta Kappa International Marriage and Family Therapy Honor Society. In her essay she reflects “My career aspirations are to teach elementary school children how to engage in mindful self-leadership so they can be better at managing their thoughts and feelings mindfully connecting with their inner calm, confidence, courage, clarity, curiosity, compassion, and creativity. I would like to lead middle and high school students in channeling their anger into creativity...I would like to end violence in our society by creating groups who lead their own self-awareness in body and mind...”

Women’s History Month Subcommittee:
Suggestion to retrain the Women’s History Month subcommittee.

Work Life Balance Subcommittee:

Plena Pearson and Christina Harmon attended the College and University Work Life Association’s (CUWFA) Annual Meeting in Atlanta, March 13-15. They along with Leah Glaser are in the process of developing a report containing a proposed strategy of action to share with Provost Dauwalder in late April, early May. They will share this report with CCW members as well.

The CSU-AAUP Executive Committee recently voted to support the attached “Resolution for Affordable, Accessible, and Quality Comprehensive Child Care at CSU.” CSU-AAUP will share the resolution with CSU-AAUP’s Council for a vote. We encourage other union members to share this resolution with their leaders, asking them to consider supporting the resolution via vote. The subcommittee plans to meet on Wednesday April 25th in the SSH Poll Sci/Soc Conference Room.
Resolution for Affordable, Accessible, and High Quality Comprehensive Child Care at CSCU areas, not a single campus in the CSCU System provides comprehensive child care, serving infants from 6 weeks to 12 years;

areas, the population of older and returning students is anticipated to increase across the nation many of those students need affordable, accessible, high-quality child care to attend class, plete course work outside of class, and participate in campus life;

areas, 26 percent of college students in the United States are raising children while attending age, and just under half of those students are enrolled in community colleges;4

gender pay inequalities in the U.S. persist in part because mothers are more likely than men to engage in part-time school or work, to not seek or to delay promotions, or to leave national or work places altogether as a result of their caregiving responsibilities;5

areas, the CSCU system may not be able to compete with more highly-resourced universities and ages in regards to offering competitive salaries to attract high quality staff, faculty and administrators; the system can work to create a family-friendly climate where faculty, staff, and administrators of all genders feel supported in regards to their work, life, and family commitments; areas, lab schools providing comprehensive child care and early childhood education can isitaneously provide 1) Important caregiving resources to families and 2) serve as academic sources providing key learning, internship and research opportunities for students and faculty;

It resolved that the 17 campuses of the CSCU System provide affordable, accessible, high ility comprehensive child care (serving children from 6 weeks to 12 years) and on-campus drop-off care facilities that will serve the CSCU system’s faculty, staff, and students.

---
• Start having conversations about their topics to discuss at the April meeting
  o Select committee leader
• Each committee should at least have a rough idea of a plan to bring to the meeting in May o What we plan to do, what we’d like to do, what we’ve done in the past, etc.
  o Why we feel the actions we decide on will be worth it

Register for the Symposium April 12th (Questions directed to Heather Rodriguez)
• Registration link forthcoming

Looking forward
• Moving on with regular elections vs. continuing with an interim position until we are settled with the new plan and new space
• Review mission statement
• Downsize the advisory board to those who actively involve themselves
  o Create a steering committee?
• Look into grant funding to help make the board activities easier
• Involve students in board activities (LASO, COLADA, CHANCE, Spanish Club, Caribbean Club, etc.)
• Organizing some social event for the board

  o Latin Week
    • Carlos: went well
    • Avidia suggests we have a feedback/input form where people can suggest what they’d like to see in the future
      • Carlos hesitant because it should be up to the students to plan events they believe are best for students
      • Event attendance may not even show up to events in the future, or don’t necessarily know what is best/possible
    • Programs were student-driven, and it should come from them
      o Clarification from Avidia: ask the students who created the events themselves about what they wish could be different/better next year
    • Can be challenging to get everyone into a room together, so it was not goal o Could do it electronically
      o Find something that exists already for feedback

LGBT Center Updates
LGBT Advisory Board Meeting
Student Center-Clock Tower Room
December 7th, 9:30 am

Events/activity:

- Speakers series (late Oct and November):
  - Carolyn Gabel, Leslie Brett, lesbian feminist activists
  - Berry Gallo/ Joe Grabarz, LGBT lobbyists
  - Diana Lombardi, CT Trans Advocacy

- Transgender Identity Panel co-sponsored by Serafin Mendez Nov 19:
  - Turned out to be an empowering experience for the few students who attended, got to meet and talk with successful trans performers, the mother of a trans son (Mary Collins) and trans advocate/HIV specialist Dr. Gary Blick

- TDOR Nov 20:
  - Good attendance, feedback very positive from students, emotional and empowering, Nichol did an amazing job. There are two articles in print about TDOR that can be seen in The Recorder and The New Britain Herald.

Updates:

- Center now has its own foundation—Lisa Bigelow created a fund (#1960) which will be an operating fund, meaning that we can spend up to the full balance at any time (though we would try not to do that.). The giving page will be set up by next week, with a link to the scholarship and to the GLBTQ Collection at the library.

- Exploring grants—as a way to possibly pay Kate Bornstein and other events/performers.

- Curriculum: working with WGSS to develop more LGBT-specific courses. Optimistic that we will have our first trans faculty member by Fall 2019.

- Two students will be attending the Creating Change Conference Trip this year: Anastasia Marco and Casey Watson. The trip will be taking place from Thursday, January 24th to Sunday, January 27th and will be in Detroit this year. An open panel discussion will be held on what we have taken back with us from this conference in February.

Priorities:

- Scott and Will are working with Robin McHaelan and True Colors to develop a strategic plan for the Center and LGBT resources on campus. Would like strategic plan finished early in semester so we can start actively working toward it by early spring.
• As part of this, we want to conduct a survey at the start of the next semester. True Colors will help us draft the questions. Input from board members welcome.

• Making this a goal: Preferred pronouns on class rosters by Fall 2019. This is doable. Meeting with registrar. Templates already in place in other schools.

• Peer mentor program and Alumni mentor program: We would like to create a proposal to create a peer mentorship/Alumni mentorship program. Nichol is currently gathering information on how other campuses have rolled out this program, what would be involved, and what would be needed. This will be an extension of our safe zone program, which already is a visible network of students, faculty, and staff that are resources for our students.

1. Welcome and Introductions
   a. Name, Pronouns, and Department/Affiliation

2. Review and Approve Last Meeting’s Minutes (Oct. 19, 2018)
   a. Technical issues were found on last meeting’s minutes for October. Nichol will input the adjustments and send the updated copy to Alberto.

3. Committee Membership and Leadership Updates
   a. There are two (2) new students who were officially inducted onto the Advisory Board: Patricia Bingham and Anastasia Marco.
   b. Alberto shared that a student co-chair is still needed for this committee and let these students know that this opportunity was available.
   c. There will be a change to our meeting date/time in the spring semester. After discussion, it was decided that the new day and time will be the first Monday of every month, 11am-12:15pm.
   d. If changes are needed to this date/time due to scheduling needs, it can be altered. E-mail Alberto if this day and time conflicts with your schedule.

4. LGBT Center & Pride Updates
   a. LGBT Center Updates and Events (please see attached LGBT Center Report for more details).
      i. William will be talking with several people to find a grant that will give the LGBT Center funds to pay for Kate Bornstein and other events/performers.
      ii. It was reiterated that WGSS is planning to hire their first trans faculty member for Fall 2019 and that it will be an adjunct position.
      iii. There will be outreach to students, faculty, and staff on the strategic plan for the future of the LGBT Center. In addition, a student survey will be created to assess student need, and a gift card drawing will be provided as an initiative. Alberto suggested that William checks Campus Pride for survey templates.
      iv. Scott stated that once pronouns are added as an option on class rosters, an e-mail should be sent to all faculty in order to give education on this change and more information on pronoun etiquette.
      v. For the peer/alumni mentorship program that Nichol is working on, a subcommittee was proposed to decide on how students and alumni will be matched with one another. Scott suggested that interested students can also become Student Orientation Leaders. He also suggested that we make sure that alumni have actually graduated to match students with alumni that will also help them academically.
      vi. For the Stonewall 50 trip in the spring, other departments like the Sociology and Psychology department would like to be involved. Scott said SA/LD could help pay for a bus, if needed.

b. Pride Updates and Events
   i. Scott and Nichol shared that the Drag Ball was rescheduled due to the snow day and it went very well.
5. LGBT Policy for CCSU Police Department Review
   a. Committee reviewed this document and came to many conclusions. There are many aspects that need to be adjusted so that it is more gender-inclusive and technically correct. More time is needed to provide feedback.
   b. Carolyn Magnan, University Counsel, will be contacted to review this document and add statutes that are relevant to this policy.
   c. More information is needed from the Police Department if this document is intended to be utilized and incorporated into their system. William Mann, Anastasia Marco, Patricia Bingham, and Nichol McCarter will contact the senior officer to schedule a meeting and address these questions.
   d. Jean suggested that if a sub-committee is formed to review and provide feedback on this policy, the committee should research best practices for this type of campus police policy. We should also invite Carolyn and a police official to be members of the sub-committee.
   e. By February, the committee agreed to provide a constructive assessment of this policy and have more answers about what this policy would mean.
   f. Dr. Greenebaum suggested that she can send a list of definitions that she uses for her WGSS class to be applied to this policy to replace the outdated terminology.

6. Expanding Curriculum Discussion
   a. LGBTQ-focused curriculum and more specialized classes
      i. More classes are needed on LGBTQ issues, specifically in the Psychology department. Patricia shared her concerns on this. As mentioned, WGSS is hiring their first trans adjunct faculty member for Fall 2019.
      ii. Moreover, more counselors are needed. Dr. Troiano shared that three (3) positions were approved for the Counseling and Wellness Services department (one director and two counselors). More commitment to this initiative was requested.

Next meetings (11am-12:15pm): Feb. 4 (Blue & White); Mar. 4 (Blue & White); Apr. 8 (Blue & White)
Meeting with Chief Sneed at 9:30 AM on February 4 - will report to Board

Talking with Registrar about adding a field for pronouns on rosters:

Pres. Toro has indicated this is a priority – the University Counsel is on board and the Registrar has pledged to make this happen as soon as they have Banner 9 up and running-- probably by this summer, meaning we should be able to meet the deadline we asked for, by next semester. The Registrar is making sure this project is on the Banner team’s radar this semester. However once they get 9.3.1 in a test environment they will need to determine if additional modifications are necessary inside Banner/Banner Self-Service, as well as integration between Banner and other systems used by the university and students. Suggest we reconstitute the group that worked on the Preferred First Name procedure to revisit policy and procedures at that point.

Registrar says at the moment “we are in a bit of a holding pattern until some of these IT tasks are worked through,”

Donations to the Center and Scholarship:

We got in about $600 to the Center over last few months and I’m expecting some more money in soon. Please use this link to solicit donations—it goes directly to our foundational account. (Right now it’s not coming up in searches but Charles Johnson is working on that.)
https://ccsu.networkforgood.com/causes/14234-lgbt-center

We got in about $700 for the scholarship.

Subject: RE: Locations of Day of the Dead Events

Hi Alberto:

The events in question are all on the first floor of the Elihu Burritt Library near the glassed in offices on the left past the circulation desk. The Day of the Dead altar will be inside the glassed in offices but the food should be outside.

1) Wednesday, October 31, start time: 10:50- End Time 11:55 Cider and donuts for 20 As long as things are ready to go by 10:50, Joan can set up when she thinks best—probably as close to the start time as possible.
2) Thursday, November 1, Start time—start time: 1:30- End time: 4:00, Latin American food for 15-20; the same kind of refreshments as last year. This is in the same space as the Wednesday event. First floor of the Library near the glassed in offices on the left, but not in front of the Day of the Dead Altar.

I hope this helps,
Mary Ann

Subject: Locations of Day of the Dead Events
Importance: High

Hello, Mary Ann! I’m working on ordering the food and refreshments for the Day of the Dead events on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. However, I know Joan Leeper from Catering will ask me the following questions:

1. Where are these events?
2. What is the start and end time for each of these events?
3. When (what time) and where specifically does the food need to be set up?
Please let me know the answers to these questions before I contact Joan. Thanks, and take care!

Best,
Alberto

1988: Civil Liberties Act of 1988: President Ronald Reagan signed a bill providing $1.2 billion ($20,000 a person) and an apology to each of the approximately 60,000 living Japanese-Americans who had been interned during World War II. Additionally, $12,000 and an apology were given to 450 Unangans (Aleuts) for internment during WWII, and a $6.4 million trust fund was created for their communities ("U.S. pays restitution; apologizes to Unangan (Aleut) for WWII Internment," National Library of Medicine).

1989: Congressman John Conyers, D-Michigan, introduced bill H.R. 3745, which aimed to create the Commission to Study Reparation Proposals for African-Americans Act. The bill was introduced "[to] address the fundamental injustice, cruelty, brutality, and inhumanity of slavery in the United States and the 13 American colonies between 1619 and 1865 and to establish a commission to study and consider a national apology and proposal for reparations for the institution of slavery, its subsequent de jure and de facto racial and economic discrimination against African-Americans, and the impact of these forces on living African-Americans, to make recommendations to the Congress on appropriate remedies, and for other purposes." (Preamble)

1993: U.S. Congress passed a joint resolution acknowledging and apologizing to Native Hawaiians the illegal United States–aided overthrow of the sovereign Hawaiian nation.

The reparations payments from 1994-2016, with the exception of Virginia Governor Mark Warner’s 2002 apology and Georgetown University’s actions, are taken from "Black and Blue Chicago Finds a New Way to Heal" by Yana Kunichoff and Sarah Macaraeg, YES Magazine, Spring 2017; and Long Overdue: The Politics of Racial Reparations: From 40 Acres to Atonement and Beyond by Charles P. Henry, 2007, NYU Press.

1995: The Southern Baptists apologized to African American church members for the denomination’s endorsement of slavery.

1997: President Bill Clinton apologized to the survivors of the U.S. government-sponsored syphilis tests in Tuskegee, Alabama.

1998: President Clinton signed into law the Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Study Site Act, which officially acknowledges an 1864 attack by seven hundred U.S. soldiers on a peaceful Cheyenne village located in the territory of Colorado. Hundreds, largely women and children, were killed. The act calls for the establishment of a federally funded Historic Site at Sand Creek.

2001: The Oklahoma legislature passed and Governor Keating signed a bill to pay reparations for the destruction of the Greenwood, Oklahoma, community in 1921 in the form of low-income student scholarships in Tulsa; an economic development authority for Greenwood; a memorial; and the awarding of medals to the 118 known living survivors of the destruction of Greenwood.

2002: Governor Mark Warner of Virginia issued a formal apology for the state's decision to forcibly sterilize more than 8,000 of its residents ("Va. Apologizes to the Victims of Sterilizations" by William Branigin, Washington Post, May 3, 2002).

2005: The U.S. Senate approved, by voice vote, S.R. 39, which called for the lawmakers to apologize to lynching victims, survivors, and their descendants, several whom were watching from the gallery.

2005: Virginia, five decades after ignoring Prince Edward County and other locales that shut down their public schools in support of segregation, is making a rare effort to confront its racist past, in effect apologizing and offering reparations in the form of scholarships. With a $1 million donation from the billionaire media investor John Kluge and a matching amount from the state, Virginia is providing up to $5,500 to any state resident who was denied a proper education when public schools shut down. So far, more than 80 students have been approved for the scholarships and the numbers are expected to rise. Several thousand are potentially eligible. "A New Hope For Dreams Suspended By Segregation," The New York Times, July 31, 2005 by Michael Janofsky.

2008/2009, U.S. House Resolution 194 and Senate Concurrent Resolution 26 made a formal apology to the African American community for "centuries of brutal dehumanization and injustices." Plus, there was an admission that "African Americans continue to suffer from the complex interplay between slavery and Jim Crow long after both systems were formally abolished through enormous damage and loss, both tangible and intangible, including the loss of human dignity."

2015: The City of Chicago signed into law an ordinance granting cash payments, free college education, and a range of social services to 57 living survivors of police torture (Burge Reparations). Explicitly defined as reparations, which totaled $5.5 million, the ordinance includes a formal apology from Mayor Rahm Emanuel and a mandate to teach the broader public about the torture through a memorial and public school curriculum.

2016: Georgetown University has acknowledged that the school has profited from the sale of slaves and has "reconciled" by naming two buildings after African Americans and offer preferred admission to any descendants of slaves who worked at the university.

2016: The state of Virginia, one of more than 30 other states that practiced forced sterilizations, followed North Carolina's lead and has since 2016 been awarding $25,000 to each survivor ("Virginia Votes Compensation for Victims of its Eugenic Sterilization Program" by Jaydee Hanson, Center for Genetics and Society, March 5, 2015).

2018: The Supreme Court, in a 4-4 deadlock, let stand a lower court's order that the state of Washington make billions of dollars worth of repairs to roads, where the state had built culverts below road channels and structures in a way that prevented salmon from swimming through and reaching their spawning grounds, that had damaged the state's salmon habitats and contributed to population loss. The case involved the Stevens Treaties, a series of agreements in 1854-55, in which tribes in Washington State gave up millions of acres of land in exchange for "the right to take fish." Implicit in the treaties, courts would later rule, was a guarantee that there would be enough fish for the tribes to harvest. Destroying the habitat reduces the population and thus violates these treaties. This decision directly affects the Swinomish Tribe ("A Victory For A Tribe That's Lost Its Salmon" by John Eligon, The New York Times, June 12, 2018).

2019*: Senator Cory Booker, D-New Jersey, introduced bill S. 1083 (H.R. 40 Commission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for African-Americans Act) in the Senate that would provide for a commission to study and report on the impact of slavery and discrimination against Black Americans and deliver a verdict on different proposals for reparations. The bill "is a way of addressing head-on the persistence of racism, white supremacy, and implicit racial bias in our country. It will bring together the best minds to study the issue and propose solutions that will finally begin to right the economic scales of past harms and make sure we are a country where all dignity and humanity is affirmed." (Press release, April 8, 2019)

2019: "Students at Georgetown University voted to increase their tuition to benefit descendants of the 272 enslaved Africans that the Jesuits who ran the school sold nearly two centuries ago to secure its future." In a nonbinding student-led referendum, "the undergraduate student body voted to add a new fee of $27.20 per student per semester to their tuition bill, with the proceeds devoted to supporting education and health care programs in Louisiana and Maryland, where many of the 4,000 known living descendants of the 272 enslaved people now reside." ("Georgetown Students Agree to Create Reparations Fund" by Adeel Hassan, The New York Times, April 12, 2019)

2019: The Virginia Theological Seminary have earmarked $1.7 million to pay reparations to descendants of African Americans who were enslaved to work on their campus. ("Virginia Theological Seminary, With Deep Roots in Slavery, Sets Aside $1.7 Million to Pay Reparations" by Dara Sharif, The Root, September 10, 2019)

Some illustrative examples.

The payments from 1952-1990 are taken from the booklet Black Reparations Now! 40 Acres, $50 Dollars, and a Mule, + Interest by Dorothy Benton-Lewis.

2014: France: More than 700 claims have been filed under an agreement between U.S. and France in which French officials have agreed to pay out $60 million for the deportations carried out by SNCF, France's railway system. In exchange, the U.S. government agreed to ask courts to dismiss any lawsuits against SNCF or the French government ("U.S. Begins Paying Out Reparations from France to Holocaust Survivors and Their Heirs" by Katherine Shaver, Washington Post, September 15, 2016).

2016: France: The State Department has paid or approved 90 claims for a total of $11 million in reparations by France to former WWII prisoners who were carried to Nazi Death Camps in French trains—the first French reparations paid to Holocaust survivors in the U.S. ("U.S. Begins Paying Out Reparations from France to Holocaust Survivors and Their Heirs" by Katherine Shaver, Washington Post, September 15, 2016).

Red Flag Campaign

Content from this presentation comes from the Red Flag Campaign, a project of the Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Action Alliance (Action Alliance). www.theredflagcampaign.org

Have you seen red flags on campus?

The Red Flag Campaign is designed to address dating violence and promote the prevention of dating violence on college campuses.

Prevalence of Dating Violence

Dating Violence occurs in 1 out of every 5 college relationships.

Dating violence is any behavior that causes physical, emotional, sexual, psychological, or economic harm.
What are some examples of Red Flags that might indicate an abusive relationship?

Red Flags for Dating Violence

- Jealousy:
  - Gets angry when his/her partner spends time with other people
  - Calls his/her partner over and over
  - Emotional abuse and victim blame
  - Uses derogatory language to describe partner
  - Constantly finds fault with his/her partner
  - Makes partner feel bad about himself/herself
- Isolation
  - Makes all the decisions in the relationship
  - Makes partner “pay” for spending time with other people
  - Persuades partner to give up activities he/she enjoys

Red Flags for Dating Violence

- Coercion
  - Ignores his/her partners wishes or needs
  - Manipulates or forces partner to do something against his/her will
- Physical and sexual abuse
  - Grabs or pushes partner
  - Throws or breaks objects
  - Forces partner to have sex or do sexual things
- Stalking
  - Harasses someone to the point of fear
  - Repeatedly follows someone
  - Sends frequent unwanted messages to someone directly or through friends
If you observed a red flag in a friend's relationship....

Why might a person choose to not say something or do something about the behavior?

Scenario 1
You're sitting in the Student Center with Joe and Emily who have been dating on and off for about a year. Joe excuses himself to get some coffee. You then notice Emily open Joe's backpack and take out his phone. She tells you that she has to check his texts, emails, and social media to make sure he's not cheating on her. She admits to doing this often because she's worried about Joe talking with other girls. She then asks that you don't tell Joe.

* What could you do if Joe was your friend?
* What could you do if Emily was your friend?

Scenario 2
You're walking back from class with your friend Kayla whose cell phone is incessantly ringing. You ask her if everything is alright and she states that her ex-boyfriend John has been texting and calling her all day. Her phone continues to go off and she appears to be frustrated. Kayla tells you that John needs to know everything she's doing all the time and it's getting annoying especially since they ended the relationship three weeks ago. She also tells you that he comes to campus every day and begs her to talk about things but she refuses.

How do you respond to Kayla's concerns about Joe's behavior?
What are some important components of healthy relationships?

Signs of a healthy relationship

When each person...

- Communication: shares thoughts and ideas
- Trust: is honest and accountable to his/her partner
- Connection: feels there are other people to rely on besides partner
- Balance: has equal decision-making power
- Safety: is peaceful, is emotionally supportive
- Boundaries: respects someone’s personal limits and privacy, recognizes a person’s right to end a relationship

2018 AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN

Executive Summary

Abstract

The Affirmative Action Plan (AAP) is a comprehensive, results-oriented set of procedures and programs that details the University's strategy to eliminate discrimination; sets forth a good faith effort to attain hiring, promotional, and programmatic goals; and achieve equal opportunity.

Office of Diversity and Equity

CCSU is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer and Educator.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Office of Diversity and Equity (CDE) has completed the University's Affirmative Action Plan (AAP) per the Connecticut General Statutes 46a-63. The AAP is a comprehensive, results-oriented set of procedures and programs that details the University's strategy to eliminate discrimination, sets forth a good faith effort to attain hiring, promotional, and programmatic goals; and achieve equal opportunity.

CCSU submits the AAP annually for review and approval by the Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities (CHRO). The CHRO reviews and evaluates the plan within 50 days to ensure that it contains all required elements and is in compliance. CHRO approved the 2017 AA Plan with no weaknesses noted based on CHRO Reviewer Neva Vigezzi's recommendation.

For this reporting period, CCSU established seventy-four (74) hiring goals and experienced forty-five (45) hires. Hiring occurred in the occupational categories of Executive Administrative, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Coaching, Professional Non-Faculty, Clerical All Titles, Secretary 2, Technical/Paraprofessional, Protective Services, and Custodians.

Since goal achievement cannot take place in categories where hiring did not occur, eight (8) goals attributable to the categories of Professor (one (1) goal), Skilled Crafts (three (3) goals), and Service Maintenance, All Titles (four (4) goals) were not achieved and therefore only sixty-six (66) of the seventy-four (74) established goals were identified as achievable goals.

Of the forty-five (45) hires that occurred during this reporting period, twelve (12) or twenty-seven percent (27%) of all hires met established reachable hiring goals.

- One (1) diverse hire in the Clerical All Titles: One (1) Black female.
- One (1) diverse hire in Protective Services: One (1) Hispanic male.
- Three (3) diverse hires in the Custodial category: Two (2) White females and One (1) Hispanic female.

Promotions Summary Chart

For this reporting period, CCSU established thirty (30) promotional goals and experienced twenty-eight (28) promotions. Promotions occurred in the occupational categories of Executive Administrative, Professor, Associate Professor, Professional Non-Faculty, and Secretary 2.

Since goal achievement cannot take place in categories where promotions did not occur, four (4) goals attributable to the categories of Clerical, All Titles (two (2) goals) and Service Maintenance, All Titles (two (2) goals) were not achievable and therefore only twenty-six (26) of the thirty (30) established goals were identified as achievable goals.

Of the twenty-eight (28) promotions that occurred during this reporting period, eight (8) or twenty-nine percent (29%) met established reachable promotional goals.

Additionally, in its commitment to diversify the University promoted twelve (12) members of underrepresented groups that did not meet established goals:
- One (1) diverse promotion in the Professor category: One (1) Hispanic male
- Ten (10) diverse promotions in the Associate Professor category: Six (6) White females; One (1) Black male, One (1) Hispanic female and Two (2) AA/AN/HPI males
- One (1) diverse promotion in the Professional/Non-faculty category: One (1) White female

In all, twenty (20) out of the twenty-eight (28) promotions, or seventy-seven (77%), were either goal candidates or candidates from historically underrepresented groups including White females in non-clerical positions.

For a full explanation, see Section 46a-68-90, Goals Analysis.

Summary of Faculty Promotions

Promotions in the faculty category are self-directed; therefore, goal achievement can be measured against those who apply for promotion. For this reporting period, CCSU established twenty-four (24) faculty promotion goals and experienced twenty-four (24) faculty promotions. Of the twenty-four (24) faculty promotions that occurred during this reporting period, eight (8) or thirty-three percent (33%) met established reachable promotion goals.

Additionally, in its commitment to diversify the University promoted eleven (11) members of underrepresented groups that did not meet established goals:
- One (1) diverse promotion in Professor: One (1) Hispanic male
- Ten (10) diverse promotions in the Associate Professor category: Six (6) White females; One (1) Black male, One (1) Hispanic female and Two (2) AA/AN/HPI males

In all, nineteen (19) out of the twenty-four (24) achievable goals, or seventy-nine (79%), were either goal candidates or candidates from historically underrepresented groups including White females in non-clerical positions.

Promotions to Professor

There were thirteen (13) faculty members who applied for promotions to Professor: Four (4) White males; Five (5) White females; One (1) Black female; One (1) Hispanic male; and, Two (2) AA/AN/HPI males.

2 White Female promotions in the categories of Clerical, All Titles and Secretary 2 were not identified as diverse candidates as they are overly represented in these categories.
Ten (10) applicants were recommended for promotions to Professor based on the evaluations of the Department Evaluation Committee (DEC), the deans, the Promotion and Tenure Committee (P&T), Provost and the President: Four (4) White males, Four (4) White females, One (1) Hispanic male, and One (1) AA/AN/NPI male. Of the Ten (10) promotions that occurred in this category, the University achieved four (4) White female and one (1) AA/AN/NPI male established promotional goals.

Three (3) applicants were denied promotions: One (1) White female goal candidate, One (1) Black female, and One (1) AA/AN/NPI male goal candidate were denied promotion because they failed to meet the criterion set forth in Article 4.11.9.1-4.11.9.5 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Thus, out of the Seven (7) applicants who were goal candidates, the University achieved five (5) goals: Four (4) White females and One (1) AA/AN/NPI male.

Of the ten (10) promotions that occurred in the professor category, the University achieved five (5) established goals or fifty percent (50%). Of these promotions, Six (6) or Sixty (60%) percent were either goal or diverse candidates.

Promotions to Associate Professors

There were Seventeen (17) faculty members who applied for promotions to Associate Professor: Two (2) White males; Seven (7) White females; One (1) Black male; Two (2) Black females; Three (3) Hispanic females; and Two (2) AA/AN/NPI males.

Fourteen (14) applicants were recommended for promotions to Associate Professor based on the evaluations of the DEC, the deans, the P&T, Provost and the President: One (1) White male, Six (6) White females; One (1) Black male; One (1) Black female; Three (3) Hispanic females; and Two (2) AA/AN/NPI males. Of the Fourteen (14) promotions that occurred in this category, the University achieved One (1) Black female and Two (2) Hispanic female established promotional goals.

One (1) White male, One (1) White female, and One (1) Black female goal candidate were denied promotion because they failed to meet the criterion set forth in Article 4.11.9.1-4.11.9.5 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Thus, out of the Five (5) applicants who were goal candidates, the University achieved three (3) goals: One (1) Black female and Two (2) Hispanic females.

Of the fourteen (14) promotions that occurred in the Associate Professor category, the University achieved three (3) goals or twenty (20%) percent. Of these promotions, Thirteen (13) or Ninety-Three (93%) were either goal or diverse candidates.

Hiring and Promotion Goals for 2017-18

The University has established hiring and/or promotional goals to remedy the underutilization of protected classes identified in the utilization analysis. Hiring goals are established for jobs usually filled through original appointment, and promotional goals are for jobs filled through an internal promotional appointment. The objective of hiring and promotional goals is to reach parity with the availability base of protected groups in relevant labor market areas.

A goal is a hiring or promotion objective, which the University must strive to obtain by demonstrating every good faith effort. Goals are set to remedy the underutilization of minorities and women in the workforce and must be established within a time frame designated.

The University has set its goals to be meaningful, measurable, and reasonably attainable. It is important to note, however, that state re-employment lists, SEBAC rights, and union contracts relating to transfers from other agencies are in effect, and the University must consider those candidates for specific vacancies if they qualify.

Hiring and Promotion Goals

Based on the Section 46a-68-40, Utilization Analysis, the University has established the following hiring and promotional goals for the period of August 1, 2016 through July 31, 2019.

Other Program Goals

Other Program Goals for 2018-2019

The University did not identify any employment policy or practice that adversely affects any minority group candidates, including physically disabled or older persons. The University will, however, continue to take a critical look at its employment processes and if disparities occur, the University will initiate a goal to remove such impact and improve the processes. In order to foster a campus climate of inclusion and diversity, to ensure equal rights for all the various groups that make up the University community and to educate our students toward appreciation for diversity, the University will:

1. Recruitment & Equitable Search Process
   - Classification Process
     - HR and ODE will identify other recruitment sources for classified positions especially for skilled crafts, custodians, and service maintenance.
   - Completion Date: July 2019
   - Responsible Person(s): Chief Diversity Officer and Chief Human Resources Officer

2. Promotion of Equal Opportunity and Harassment-free Workplace
   - Training
     - ODE will establish a training focused specifically on implicit bias in the workplace and offer it, as part of Diversity Training, on an annual basis. All employees will be invited to attend, but supervisors, administrators and department chairs will be especially targeted.
     - ODE will provide sexual harassment training to all members of the CCSU Police Department.
     - ODE will provide new, comprehensive online Title IX [sexual misconduct, sexual harassment] training for employees, graduate students and undergraduate students.
   - Completion Date: July 2019
   - Responsible Person(s): Chief Diversity Officer; Associate in Diversity and Equity; Chief Human Resources Officer; Provost; Victim Advocate; Vice President of Student Affairs.

3. Foster a Safe and Inclusive Work Climate
   - Utilize recommendations from the CCSU Task Force on Sexual Misconduct, Bullying and Campus Climate to Improve Diversity and Equity procedures and training.
   - The President of CCSU established a Task Force whose mission is to review campus processes and procedures related to complaints of sexual misconduct, examine programmatic initiatives and identify recommendations. A report will be provided to the university community in December 2018. Diversity and Equity will review these recommendations and use them to improve complaint procedures and training.
   - Completion Date: May 2019
   - Responsible Person(s): Chief Diversity Officer; Chief Human Resources Officer; Associate in Diversity and Equity

Cooperation with Other Agencies

When the cooperation of another agency is essential to the implementation of a program goal, CCSU will maintain a record of each instance of contact with the agency and the outcome of the request.

You are hanging out with some friends and acquaintances. Some people start talking about a rape that recently occurred at a nearby university. An acquaintance of yours says, "Yeah, but she was totally wasted, what did she think was going to happen to her?" Some of the people involved in the conversation laugh, others look uncomfortable but don’t say anything.

What Would You Do?
How can you help someone who has experienced sexual violence?

- Listen without judgment
- Believe them
- Show genuine concern and empathy
- Avoid making assumptions
- Offer to go with them to talk to someone
- Be there for them

Bystander Intervention: Relationship Violence

Review: What is a bystander?

- Bystanders are individuals who witness emergencies, events or incidents that could lead to harm to another person and by their presence may have the opportunity to provide assistance, deter, redirect, or contribute to the negative behavior.
- Proactive bystanders are individuals whose behaviors intervene to stop or help change the negative pathway.

5 Steps Toward Taking Action

- Notice the event.
- Decide if the situation demands action.
- Assume personal responsibility to act.
- Decide what form of assistance is needed.
WHY DON'T PEOPLE INTERVENE?

- Their relationship is their business - not mine
- Unclear if it is abuse
- Assurer may isolate the victim from friends and family who could help
- Don't know what to do
- Victim doesn't want help

What is Sexual Assault?

Sexual assault is a crime and it will not be tolerated at Central Connecticut State University. It includes, but is not limited to, a sexual act directed against another person without the consent (as defined in the Board of Regent's Sexual Misconduct Policy) of the other person or when that person is not capable of giving such consent. Any person can be a victim or a perpetrator.

Examples: rape, attempted rape, and/or intentional touching a person's body for sexual gratification without their consent.

What is Consent?

Consent is active; both parties say “yes.” It is ongoing and can be withdrawn at any time without fear or explanation. Consent is a must for every form of sexual activity every time. You have the right to withdraw consent even if you have consented to sexual activity with the person in the past. Consent is ...

» agreeing to specific sexual behavior willingly. Obtaining consent is the responsibility of the person initiating the sexual contact.

» not valid if forced, intimidated or coerced.

» not valid when judgment is impaired by the use of alcohol/drugs or if the person is sleeping or unconscious.

State law is very clear that having sexual intercourse with someone who cannot consent is RAPE.
If someone tells you about a sexual assault...

Remember

1. Listen and don’t form opinions

2. Don’t judge the severity of the situation based on their response to it

3. Empower them to make their own decisions

4. Trust their word and help them

5. Tell them you believe them

6. Let them know they are not alone

What is Intimate Partner, Domestic and/or Dating Violence?

Intimate partner, domestic and/or dating violence includes acts of violence or threats of violence that occur between individuals who are family or household members, or persons in a current or former dating or cohabitating relationship. Intimate partner violence may include physical abuse, emotional abuse and threats of abuse.

Examples: assaults, rape, domestic or family violence involving physical force, stalking, texting that contains obscene material, electronic communications that contain serious threats of physical violence, and violation of a protective or restraining order issued by a court.
What is Stalking?

Stalking is defined as obsessive or unwanted contact of another person. This contact may cause reasonable apprehension of imminent physical harm or affect one's ability to perform daily life functions. It is when someone repeatedly contacts you, follows you, talks to you when you do not want them to, or threatens you.

Examples: unwanted communication (email, texting, instant messaging and other electronic forms), damaging personal property, showing up places you go, or sending unwanted gifts.

If it doesn’t feel right or safe, it probably isn’t.

How Can I Help Stop Sexual Assault/Violence?

Sexual assault and interpersonal violence are complex and very real issues on college campuses today. In order to address this reality, all members of the campus community and relevant outside agencies must work together. Public safety is everyone’s responsibility. Consider the following ways you can work to stop sexual violence and interpersonal violence:

» Speak up. Take a stand in situations that could escalate.
» Talk openly with your friends about these issues.
» Encourage student leaders, coaches, professors, and others to provide information about sexual assault to students.
» Use the resources listed in this brochure to inform yourself and help plan activities and programs for campus clubs and organizations.
» Don’t be afraid to get involved.
» Take care of yourself and your friends.

Student Rights

CCSU has protocols and procedures in place to respond to reports of sexual violence. When a report involves students (as the accuser or the accused), all involved have equal rights throughout the disciplinary process, including the right to:

» select an advisor or support person of their choosing and to bring that person to any meetings or proceedings that they choose.
» present a statement, evidence and witnesses on their behalf.
» review information, in a timely manner, that will be used at the hearing by other parties.
» have a pre-hearing meeting.
» be informed, in writing, of the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings and any sanctions imposed.
» appeal the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings.

These rights were established by University policies and, state and federal legislation that prohibit sex discrimination.

History of Lavender Graduation Script (2018)

The color lavender is an important symbol in LGBTQ history and culture. It is a combination of pink and black: the colors of the triangles that gay men and lesbian women, respectively, were required to wear as prisoners in Nazi concentration camps. Over time, the LGBTQ rights movement reclaimed these symbols of oppression to create a color that would symbolize pride and community for LGBTQ people.

The first Lavender Graduation Ceremony was held 19 years ago at the University of Michigan and was realized through the efforts of Dr. Ronnie Sanlo. Her groundbreaking work and advocacy for LGBTQ students has inspired these annual celebrations, which today are held at colleges and universities across the country.

Lavender Graduation came to our University in May of 2010 as part of a capstone project completed by Marcia Butland and Peter Testori, graduate students in the Student Development in Higher Education program.

In the tradition of Lavender Graduation, we as a campus community come together to recognize the academic achievements of our graduating LGBTQ students and allies. We acknowledge the unique challenges that members of our community often face throughout their lives and during their pursuit of higher education.

And we also give thanks and recognition for their diverse efforts and contributions to our campus life and diversity.

It is now my pleasure to introduce Dr. Peter Troiano, Interim Vice President of Student Affairs, to share some Opening Remarks.

Red Flag Campaign – Campus Communication

1. E-mail sent to all employees from Chief Diversity Officer on Wednesday, October 24, 2018

Dear Colleagues:

Have you seen the red flags on campus? CCSU has launched the 2018 Red Flag Campaign – an annual project to address and prevent dating violence in our community. This campaign features a series of posters that illustrate behaviors that might be present in a relationship in which dating violence is occurring, a 15 minute presentation facilitated by members of the Red Flag Campaign Committee and opportunities for students, faculty and staff to receive comprehensive bystander intervention training. There are many ways for you to be involved:

- Invite us to your classroom or student group. E-mail Sarah Dodd, Diversity Associate, at sarahdodd@ccsu.edu to schedule a 15 minute presentation in any of your classes or groups. The presentation will focus on identifying abusive behavior in dating relationships, signs of a healthy relationship and how to help a friend who may be experiencing abuse. This presentation would be appropriate for classes in any academic discipline.

- Encourage (or bring!) your classes to attend a bystander training. Office of Diversity and Equity, in collaboration with the CCSU Student Government Association, is offering four sessions of Bringing in the Bystander, a 90 minute, evidence-based training focused on teaching students, faculty and staff how to safely intervene in situations that could lead to sexual or relationship violence. Registration is required. The trainings will take place on:
  - Friday, October 26 from 10:30 am – 12:00 pm (Sprague-Carlton, Student Center)
  - Tuesday, October 30 from 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm (Bellin A, Student Center)
  - Tuesday, November 6 from 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm (Vance 105, Student Center)
  - Saturday, November 10 from 3:00 pm – 4:30 pm (Sprague Carlton, Student Center)

Click here to register to attend the training.

If you would like to encourage your students to attend through providing extra credit or making one of the presentations an assignment please e-mail sarahdodd@ccsu.edu. She can assist you with tracking student attendance or any other needs.

- Request a poster. Red Flag posters will be put up on campus Tuesday, October 30. If you would like a poster for your office or department please contact sarahdodd@ccsu.edu

For more information on dating violence and the Red Flag Campaign, go to www.theredflagcampaign.org. Thank you for your continued support of CCSU violence prevention initiatives on our campus.

Red Flag Campaign

Have you seen red flags on campus?

The Red Flag Campaign is designed to address dating violence and promote the prevention of dating violence on college campuses.
Dating Violence occurs in 1 out of every 5 college relationship.

Dating violence is a pattern of abusive behavior in a relationship that is used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another. It may be physical, emotional, sexual, psychological, or economic.
What are some examples of Red Flags that might indicate an abusive relationship?
Red Flags for Dating Violence

When a person....

* Jealousy:
  * Gets angry when his/her partner spends time with other people
  * Calls his/her partner over and over

* Emotional abuse and victim blame
  * Uses derogatory language to describe partner
  * Constantly finds fault with his/her partner
  * Makes partner feel bad about himself/herself

* Isolation
  * Makes all the decisions in the relationship
  * Makes her/his partner “pay” for spending time with other people
  * Persuades his/her partner to give up activities he/she enjoys
Red Flags for Dating Violence

* When a person....

* Coercion
  * Ignores her/his partner's wishes or needs
  * Manipulates or forces partner to do something against his/her will

* Physical and sexual abuse
  * Grabs or pushes partner
  * Throws or breaks objects
  * Forces his/her partner to have sex or do sexual things

* Stalking
  * Harasses someone to the point of fear
  * Repeatedly follows someone
  * Sends frequent unwanted messages to someone directly or through friends
If you observed a red flag in a friend’s relationship....

Why might a person choose to not say something or do something about the behavior?

Why might a person choose to say something or do something about the behavior?
Scenario 1

You’re sitting in the Student Center with Joe and Emily who have been dating on and off for about a year. Joe excuses himself to get some coffee. You then notice Emily open Joe’s backpack and take out his phone. She tells you that she has to check his texts, emails and social media to make sure he’s not cheating on her. She admits to doing this often because she’s worried about Joe talking with other girls. She then asks that you don’t tell Joe.

* What could you do if Joe was your friend?

* What could you do if Emily was your friend?
Scenario 2

You're walking back from class with your friend Kayla whose cell phone is incessantly ringing. You ask her if everything is alright and she states that her ex-boyfriend John has been texting and calling her all day. Her phone continues to go off and she appears to be frustrated. Kayla tells you that John needs to know everything she's doing all the time and it's getting annoying especially since she ended the relationship three weeks ago. She also tells you that he comes to campus every day and begs her to talk things but she refuses.

How do you respond to Kayla's concerns about Joe's behavior?
What are some important components of healthy relationships?
Signs of a healthy relationship

When each person...

* Communication: shares thoughts and ideas
* Trust: Is honest and accountable to his/her partner
* Connection: Feels there are other people to rely on besides partner
* Balance: Has equal decision-making power
* Safety: Is peaceful, is emotionally supportive
* Boundaries: Respects someone's personal limits and privacy, recognizes a person's right to end a relationship

Promotions Summary Chart

For this reporting period, CCSU established thirty (30) promotional goals and experienced twenty-eight (28) promotions. Promotions occurred in the occupational categories of Executive Administrative, Professor, Associate Professor, Professional Non-Faculty, and Secretary 2.

Since goal achievement cannot take place in categories where promotions did not occur, four (4) goals attributable to the categories of Clerical, All Titles [two (2) goals] and Service Maintenance, All Titles [two (2) goals] were not achievable and therefore only twenty-six (26) of the thirty (30) established goals were identified as achievable goals.

Hiring and Promotional Goals for 2017-18

The University has established hiring and/or promotional goals to remedy the underutilization of protected classes identified in the utilization analysis. Hiring goals are established for jobs usually filled through original appointment, and promotional goals are for jobs filled through an internal promotional appointment. The objective of hiring and promotional goals is to reach parity with the availability base of protected groups in relevant labor market areas.

A goal is a hiring or promotion objective, which the University must strive to obtain by demonstrating every good faith effort. Goals are set to remedy the underutilization of minorities and women in the workforce and must be established within a time frame designated.

The University has set its goals to be meaningful, measurable, and reasonably attainable. It is important to note, however, that state re-employment lists, SEBAC rights, and union contracts relating to transfers from

Mann named director of LGBT Center

"Central has an opportunity to become a hub for LGBT culture and scholarship throughout the region. There's real excitement here among LGBT and allied students about the possibilities."

— William Mann

William J. Mann ’84, award-winning biographer, historian, and LGBTQ activist, has been hired as the new director of Central Connecticut State University’s LGBT Center and will join the History Department this fall as a full-time faculty member.

Mann, whose books include Tintsetown (winner of the 2015 Edgar Award for Best True Crime) and The Wars of the Roosevelts (2015), earned a B.S. in History from CCSU in 1984.

“I am very pleased to have someone of William Mann’s stature and experience join the Central faculty. His new position will unite his academic work with the critical mission of our LGBT Center and the unique GLBTQ Archive housed in the University’s Burns Library,” CCSU President Zilma R. Toro explains. "Under his leadership, the LGBT Center will expand and thrive as a critical resource in helping our students acquire the knowledge and develop the beliefs and approaches for valuing our differences as human beings."

Katherine Hermes, professor and chair of the History Department, notes, “When students go online to look up the top 10 LGBTQ-friendly colleges and universities, they are almost always directed to private liberal arts colleges. President Toro and her administration recognize that LGBTQ students need affordable, public higher education options.”

For the past several years, Mann has been teaching courses on LGBT history and popular culture on a part-time basis. He will continue teaching as a full-time faculty member in the History Department and a member of the Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies program. He also plans to work with the English Department to develop more interdisciplinary, LGBT-themed courses. During the fall semester he will teach a course on the history of AIDS and launch a public history project focused on CCSU’s GLBTQ archive, which is housed at the Burns Library.

Mann says he hopes to raise the profile of CCSU as a welcoming, affirming institution.

“Central has an opportunity to become a hub for LGBT culture and scholarship throughout the region. There’s real excitement here among students, faculty and outside scholars.”

CCSU ARCHIVE ILLUSTRATES LGBT HISTORY

By Loretta Waidman

Since 1993, CCSU has been home to an extraordinary collection of books, papers, and memorabilia documenting the history of the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community in Greater Hartford and Connecticut. With the appointment of William Mann to Central’s History Department faculty and as new director of Central’s LGBT Center, this hidden gem is about to get some well-deserved attention.

Mann, an award-winning biographer, historian, and LGBTQ activist, will be working to build up this archive and increase its use by students, faculty and outside scholars.

CCSU Students Learn To Be Positive Bystanders

BY KELLY LANGEVIN
ASSISTANT NEWS EDITOR

Central Connecticut is mostly quiet on the weekend. Besides, the occasional student roaming down the campus pathways or through a building, the scenery lacks the weekdays' usual hustle and bustle.

But in the Student Center's PHILBRICK Room this past Saturday afternoon, nine students gathered to participate in the "Bringing in the Bystander" workshop the Student Government Association now requires of club executive boards if they want funding.

"What is a bystander?" Sarah Dodd, Central's victim advocacy and violence prevention specialist, asked the group. "When you hear that word, what do you think? Are our perceptions of them positive, negative or both?"

"They're a witness," one student answered. "The general view is that they're a coward," another replied. More hands went up from a variety of different clubs' boards members, the engagement pleasing Dodd, and with that, the one-and-a-half-hour training session began.

"Bringing in the Bystander" is an "evidence-based" bystander intervention program by NASPA, or the Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education, aimed at teaching bystanders how to safely intervene in instances where sexual violence, relationship violence or stalking may be occurring or where there may be a risk that it will occur.

The Connecticut Board of Regents bought the rights to the training for all Connecticut State Colleges and Universities about a year-and-a-half ago through the Safe and Friendly Environment, also known as the SAFE, grant.

CCSU's Athletics Department was the first to ask the Office of Diversity and Equity for the trainings for its teams, Dodd said. Resident assistants and people who chose to participate in open sessions were also trained, though not many showed up to the open sessions, causing cancellations.

"We want to do this training for as many people as we can," Dodd said in a post-interview. "For them, the mandatory aspect means reaching more of the campus community and teaching them empathy for survivors, as well as the skills to intervene effectively. I want to facilitate it to anyone I can. I believe in this training."

And that showed. Facing the front of the room where a projector displayed her presentation, Dodd expressed the gravity of the training and her intention to teach it to the small group.

"I am going to talk really directly about sexual violence and intimate partner violence. This is not a training where we are going to dance around or screw around what these issues look like on college campuses," she told the students.

Dodd cited several real-life examples, one being the 1987 University of New Hampshire sexual assault of a female freshman by three male students. Dodd and the group examined how multiple bystanders had the opportunity to stop the assault, including an RA who saw it firsthand and gave the three students what could be considered a slap on the wrist.

"That's so mind-boggling," a male student said of the mentioned RA in the after-discussion.

Dodd also brought up the 2010 murder of Yeardey Malone as an instance of intimate partner violence and again asked the group to identify how the case's bystanders could have helped prevent Malone's death.

Additionally, Dodd referenced Brock Turner's 2015 rape of an unconscious woman as an example of positive bystander intervention, lauding the students who pulled Turner off of the victim and those who rushed to her aid. Furthermore, Dodd stated that the Californians who voted to recall the judge who gave Turner a light sentence was in and of itself a form of positive bystander intervention.

"It's not just thinking about how we're affecting people directly, but how we are indirectly changing the culture of our communities," Dodd said.

Dodd then asked students to do an activity where they wrote the name of the person they trust the most, the place where they feel the safest, their favorite class and a secret on four individual slips of paper. One by one, she told the students to tear each paper up, saying that they could no longer trust that person and could no longer go to that place or that class. The secret, she said, they had to keep forever.

The activity was meant to walk students through what a victim of sexual assault experiences. Dodd explained that survivors had commended her for the activity, saying that they wanted others to understand consequences beyond the physical trauma.

The positive feedback went further than just the activity. Dodd described survivors talking to her, telling her that she changed the way they thought and perceived all different aspects of the "Bystander" training.

"They appreciate that we talk about issues with the seriousness that they do. This is not a training where we're just rushing an issue's way to get it over with," Dodd said. "These are really serious issues."

The effectiveness of the training is difficult to measure, with even Dodd stating that people's understandings and perceptions of sexual assault are different. The SGA paired them with the goal that club leaders will relay the information to their members increasing the number of trained students.

When asked if he would do so, one student's response was as complicating as the training's effectiveness.

"I don't want to generalize, but like the type of people in my club tend to do stuff like this, the student felt uncomfortable with being named. "These kinds of situations tend to be popular with athletics, which is why I think they do it the way the [National Collegiate Athletic Association]."

"So, for my club specifically, probably be continued. After a few more seconds, she switched. "Yes. As a matter of fact, I will next meeting."
New LGBT Director Looks Ahead For Center's Future

BY SOPHIA CONTRERAS
STAFF WRITER

Like many first-year students, William Mann took some time off after his first year to figure out what he wanted to study. Mann came in as a graphic design major, but quickly realized it wasn’t his passion and came back the following year as a history major.

Mann excelled in history and, upon graduation, went to work in Washington D.C. with a congressman.

But a few years after, Mann longed for his home state, Connecticut, and moved back to attend Wesleyan University, graduating with a master’s in film and literature studies.

“I knew [Connecticut] was home. I had a lot of connections here, teachers and people who were a part of Wesleyan, so I was able to excel in the program because of the academic freedom Wesleyan gives you,” Mann said.

Since graduating from Wesleyan, Mann has dedicated his life to writing books. He is most noted for his book “Kate: The Woman Who Was Hepburn,” which was named one of the top 100 most notable books of 2006 by The New York Times.

In addition to his professional career, Mann is an advocate for LGBTQ rights. Mann was previously the director of Your turf, an LGBTQ youth group now known as True Colors, as well as co-publisher and editor of “Metroline,” the LGBTQ magazine of Connecticut.

In 2014, Central Connecticut’s library invited him to come to speak about the university’s LGBTQ collection.

“I talked about the collection and my personal work. After that, the director of the library department at the time asked me if I would be interested in teaching a class about LGBTQ history and I enjoyed it so much that I was able to stay,” Mann said.

Mann teaches LGBTQ history class and a history on AIDS. This upcoming spring, he will be teaching an English and history hybrid on LGBTQ literature.

Mann credits President Dr. Zulma Toro for bringing more attention to the LGBTQ center.

This scholarship recognizes the Humanitarian Spirit. It is awarded to students who have demonstrated their commitment to the improvement of civil rights and equality in their communities. Scholarship recipients come from underrepresented, non-traditional, and underprivileged groups with proven financial need and a drive for outstanding academic achievement.

Ebenezer D. Bassett: In 1853, the New Britain Normal School, the founding institution for CCSU, graduated its first African-American student, Ebenezer D. Bassett. He would go on to become a noted educator, an influential activist in the anti-slavery movement, and this nation's first African-American diplomat as the Minister Resident to Haiti. Annually, CCSU is proud to celebrate one of its most distinguished alumni.

We need your help!

Please consider making a gift today to help us reach our goal of raising $25,000 to fully endow the scholarship! Once endowed, this fund will live on in perpetuity, making scholarship awards to CCSU students in honor of the life and legacy of one of CCSU’s most distinguished alumni.

Dear Central Family,

Recent reports that the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services is preparing to rescind recognition and protection of transgender people are deeply troubling to me. As the leader of this institution, I want you to know that CCSU will fight any attempt to reinterpret Title IX to eliminate protections for transgender individuals.

CCSU will not waver in its commitment to a diverse campus that is respectful of the dignity of every member of our community. More than that, we celebrate the unique contributions and the fearless integrity of our transgender students and employees.

I want to assure our transgender campus community that we will continue to rigorously enforce our campus non-discrimination policy, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of gender identity and expression. Moreover, I want you to know that you are valued here, and you always will be.

Sincerely,

Zulma R. Toro

LGBT Center Updates
Trainings, Support Groups, Student Services
September 20th, 2018

- TNT- Transgender, Non-Binary, and Trans-Question Peer Support Group
  A new peer support group started this semester, created and facilitated by one of our student workers, Emilia Marco. TNT is a transgender focused discussion group that discusses the many different facets of the trans experience, from the personal experiences of transgender members of the CCSU community to national and global issues facing transgender people today. This is a place to exchange resources, receive support and build friendship. All are welcome to join this new group, whether they are transgender, trans-questioning, gender nonconforming, an ally or any other identity under the trans umbrella. We are excited to be offering this group this semester. They meet every Monday from 3:15 pm until 4:15 pm in the LGBT Center.

- Inside Out Support Group
  This year, the Inside Out group will be welcoming back Victoria Ginter from counselling and wellness as the new facilitator of this support group. We would like to thank Gladys deeply for the many years she has dedicated to helping support the LGBTQIA+ and ally students that have attended Inside Out over the years. The day and time of this support group has remained the same; Thursday’s from 3:15 pm- 4:15 pm in the LGBT Center.

- Safe Zone Trainings
  General Safe Zone Training dates have been established for this semester and are open to any student, staff and/or faculty member of the CCSU community. Please encourage your colleagues/students/staff to attend this ally training, if they have not done so already. Below are the general session dates, but offices, clubs and other groups are more than welcome to contact us to schedule a training for their group. All will be located in the 1849 room.
  - Tuesday, October 16th from 4:30 pm- 6:00 pm
  - Friday, October 26th from 11:30 am- 1:00 pm
  - Tuesday, November 14th from 4:30 pm- 6:00 pm
  - Monday, December 3rd from 6:30 pm- 8:00 pm

- Community Care Clothing Rack
  As an effort to provide more resources for our students who identify outside of the gender binary or are in need of clothing, we have started to offer a community care rack, open to any student in need. Although all students in need are welcome to this rack, our students who are transitioning and are in need of gender-affirming clothing are encouraged to take what they need and leave what they no longer have use for. We hope to hold an official clothing swap program for students, in order to increase awareness of this service and help those who may not feel comfortable coming up to the center. We have received many donations, that have exceeded our space available for this service. All excess clothes donated will be given to other LGBT center clothing racks, that have the room and need for it.

2019 Elect Her - Campus Women Win Training at CCSU

The Women's Center is proud to announce that CCSU has been selected by Running Start to host Elect Her Campaign, a national program to encourage and train college women to run for student government and political office. During this one-day, 4-hour training, participants will learn and practice hands-on campaign skills, hear from inspiring speakers, and discuss research on women in government. The skills learned in this workshop, like networking and building an elevator speech, will transfer to many leadership opportunities throughout their life, not just student government.

Elect Her is the only program in the country that encourages and trains college women to run for student government and future political office. Elect Her addresses the need to expand the pipeline of women candidates and to diminish the longstanding political leadership gender gap.

Research shows that women are not asked to run for office as often as men, which is why your participation can change our world. More women are needed in leadership, we are prepared to help you take a seat at the table and lead the group.

If interested in attending this great leadership opportunity, please register at www.ccsu.edu/ElectHer. Join Us!

FIRE & FLOOD

QUEER RESILIENCE
IN THE ERA OF CLIMATE CHANGE

"People don't see the connection between climate change and the treatment of queer and trans people in our communities... we need to think about how we are all entangled. We need to start having conversations about how to address the powerful changes that need to happen for us to survive and to thrive as a community, as a people, as a species."

Javier Armando Ricardo Gonzales, former director of Positive Images LGBTQ center during the 2017 fires in Santa Rosa, CA

Please join us for a film screening and community discussion on Monday, April 22nd at 5:00 PM in Camp Room 121, Student Center

A Film Project by Vanessa Raditz

Vanessa is an environmental health researcher, youth educator, and culture-shifter dedicated to community healing, opening access to land and resources, and fostering a thriving local economy based on human and ecological resilience. Vanessa holds a Master of Public Health in Environmental Health Sciences from UC Berkeley, and is part of the founding collective of the Queer EcoJustice Project, educating and organizing at the intersection of ecological justice and queer liberation. The “Fire and Flood” film project is rooted in Vanessa’s lived experience of the 2017 fires in Northern California, and their personal relationships with diasporic Boricuas rallying support for a just recovery in Puerto Rico following the two hurricanes of that same fall. Through interviews with queer and trans people immediately following disaster and one year later, the film explores the impacts of climate change on LGBTQ communities, and how we build resilience using our community’s unique knowledge of what it takes to change, transition, and survive.

KATE BORNSTEIN

Fri May 10

Since 1989, trans trailblazer Kate Bornstein has—with humor and spunk—ushered us into a world of limitless possibility through a re-envisioning of gender as we know it. Kate lives on the edge of paradox, looking beyond the binary to see gender as both a conscious practice and a playful journey.

10th Annual Celebration of the Achievements & Accomplishments of our Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Queer, Trans, and Ally Graduates

Featuring Keynote Commencement Address By Kate Bornstein

More About Kate:
Since 1989, trans trailblazer Kate Bornstein has—with humor and spunk— ushered us into a world of limitless possibility through a daring re-envisioning of the gender system as we know it. Today, Kate identifies as nonbinary: not a man and not a woman—and she’s been writing about nonbinary gender identity for nearly thirty years. Kate’s work is taught in five languages, in over 300 high schools, colleges, and universities around the world. One of her works includes the groundbreaking, “Gender Outlaw: On Men, Women, and the Rest of Us”. If you haven’t read Kate’s work or heard her speak before, get ready—she is the radical role model, the affectionate best friend, and the guiding mentor all in one. You will come away energized, comforted, and full of hope.
