State of Connecticut Defined Contribution Plans
Recorded Webinar Sessions and Retirement Counselor Q&A Workshops
January 10-14

Important : View the recorded tutorials in advance of Q&A sessions. Please find a summary regarding each topic below. You can find the tutorials by visiting: <http://www.ctdcp.com/tools.html>

Nearing Retirement (Options to Consider Before and After Retirement) - Retiring in the next 0-5 years? The Nearing Retirement Presentation focuses on the conversations that Retirement Counselors have with participants as they lead up to retirement. Contribution catch-up opportunities, deferral of vacation & sick time payouts, what to expect upon retirement from State of CT employment and your retirement plan(s) withdrawal options will be discussed.

Vacation Sick Time Tutorial - Your last check with the State of CT may include accumulated vacation/sick time. Be proactive as you near retirement and learn how you can request to contribute vacation/sick time.

TIER IV Overview – Employees hired on or after 07/31/2017 have a defined benefit plan (pension administered by State of CT) and a defined contribution plan (administered by Prudential.) The presentation highlights the defined benefit portion and provides details regarding the defined contribution piece.

457b and 403b Enrollment Workshop – The employer sponsored retirement plans available dependent upon what State agency you work with. Who is eligible for the plan(s), the highlights of each plan and how to enroll will be reviewed.

Ask the Retirement Counselor a Question Series – Come prepared with a question(s) to ask the counselor at any time during the scheduled window

Due to an unprecedented high volume of requests, for those retiring before July 1, 2022 please defer scheduling an appointment with a retirement counselor to no more than two months prior to your retirement date.
