WELCOME!

All of us at the Center for International Education (CIE) welcome you to Central Connecticut State University! We are very pleased that you have chosen to study at CCSU and look forward to working with you and coming to know you soon.

Studying outside your country will provide you with an exciting and interesting challenge, and an opportunity to meet new people and experience a new culture. Please be sure to read the information provided in this Handbook; it will help to answer some of your questions about transportation to campus, housing, Visa application, immigration regulations, and CCSU in general.

We understand that as new arrivals in Connecticut you will experience a period of adjustment. For that reason, you are required to attend the International Student Orientation – details will be sent to you before your arrival. At the orientation, which provides a full breakfast and lunch at no charge, you will receive information on immigration, health and safety, banking, class registration, employment, U.S academic style and cultural adjustment, and more.

MANDATORY ORIENTATION

All International and Exchange Students must attend the mandatory orientation provided by CIE and other officials of the University (details will be emailed to you well before your arrival). At the orientation, which provides a full breakfast and lunch at no charge, you will receive updates regarding U.S. immigration law and your responsibilities, as well as other important information that you need to start your semester at CCSU - and you will have the chance to meet fellow international students!

Documents that you MUST bring to Orientation:

- Passport
- Current I-20 (matriculated students who hold F-1 visas)
- Current DS-2019 (exchange students who hold J-1 visas)
- Any previous I-20 form
- Any other relevant immigration documents (i.e. transfer forms, employment cards, approval notices).
YOUR IMMIGRATION DOCUMENTS

Passport
- Your passport must be valid for at least six months beyond your planned stay in the U.S.
- Your passport is your primary means of identification while you are in the U. S.
- Keep your passport valid while you are in the U. S.

You will NO LONGER be given an I-94 Card at the point of entry into the United States by air or sea. The Customs and Border Protection will provide an ADMISSION STAMP on your passport, which will show the date of admission, visa type and required departure date (admitted until date). The admission stamp indicates how long you may remain in the United States. (It should not be confused with the visa, which only authorizes permission to attempt entry into the U.S.) A copy of your I-94 can be printed from www.cbp.gov/I94, if required for any purpose such as the Department of Motor Vehicles, Social Security Office, etc.

Visa
- To apply for a U.S. visa, present your documents at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate outside the U.S. For a list of U.S. Embassies and Consulates see: www.usembassy.gov/
- A valid U.S. visa allows you to enter the United States.
- Your visa shows the immigration status used to enter the U. S.

DS-2019 Form
- For J-1 visa applicants only (exchange students)
- If traveling outside the U. S. prior to the expiration date on your DS-2019, a travel signature is required for re-entry into the U. S. (even if traveling to Canada or Mexico).
- The DS-2019 cannot be extended beyond the dates of your program.

DO NOT ENTER THE U.S. ON A B-1/B-2 VISITOR VISA

SPECIAL NOTE FOR CANADIAN STUDENTS: Non-immigrants traveling on a Canadian passport are not required to have a visa and may enter the U.S. with only a valid Form I-20 and passport.
Visas for Third Country Nationals (TCN)
TCN visa applicants (someone applying for a visa outside their home country) will have more difficulties when applying for a visa. Consular officers will deny visas whenever they believe there are fraud indications present, or their lack of knowledge of local conditions and familiarity with documents in the applicant's home country prevents them from properly adjudicating the case. Applications will not be accepted from nationals of countries currently designated as state sponsors of terrorism. For more information go to: https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/visa-information-resources/nonimmigrants-present-visiting-canada-mexico.html

Documents needed to apply for a Visa include:
- Passport
- I-20 form (matriculated students) or DS-2019 form (exchange students)
- Proof of Funding
- Proof of tie to your home country
- One 2 inch by 2 inch passport photographs
- Visa Application fee
- University Admission letter
- SEVIS fee payment receipt (see: www.fmjfee.com)

Check with your local U.S Embassy or Consulate for their specific procedures. If you encounter any problems during this process, immediately contact Hoa Do, International Student and Scholar Services at 860-832-2040 or hoados.csu.edu. In fact, all questions regarding your immigration status as an international or exchange student should be referred to Hoa Do.

Note: F-1 and J-1 visa holders are permitted entry to the U.S. up to 30 days prior to their programs start date, which is indicated on the I-20 or DS-2019.

TRAVELING TO THE CCSU CAMPUS

Central Connecticut State University (CCSU) looks forward to welcoming you to campus when you arrive for your studies. This guide, which includes lots of useful websites and phone numbers, will help you make your travel and hotel reservations.

We wish you safe travels!

CAMPUSS ARRIVAL

Traveling to Campus
- Students are responsible for making their own travel plans and can choose from many options, including those outlined below.
- This guide offers detailed information about transport to campus from area airports, train stations, bus terminals, as well as information about nearby hotels and taxi cab companies.
- When making your plans, you will want to compare direct routes (typically more expensive) and alternate routes; travel time estimates are also provided below.

Early Reservations are Important
- Use this guide to call or go online to compare schedules, costs, and availability.
- Once you decide which travel arrangement is best for you, book your reservation(s) as soon as possible, at least 3-4 weeks in advance of your departure.
- Before you leave, confirm your reservation again; carry a copy of the online reservations that you make.

Travel Money
- Be sure to bring sufficient funds (U. S. dollars) when you arrive at the U. S. airport. If you do not bring funds with you, be sure that you can access funds from an ATM when you arrive in the U. S.
- It is best to have at least $175-$200 to cover the cost of your transportation -- plus tip -- to campus, as well as the cab fare and tip that you may need.
- Also, be prepared for unexpected medical issues when CCSU Health Services is closed (after 5p.m. and on weekends). Cab fare to the local hospital or urgent care center is about $20 roundtrip and you may be required to pay a co-pay depending on your insurance.

Hotel for Early/Late Arrival
- If you arrive in the U. S. either too early or too late to come to campus on the designated Move-In Hours (sent to you in a separate mailing), you will want to make your own over-night accommodations. Below, you will find a detailed list of area hotels.

CONNECTICUT WEATHER – AND WHAT TO WEAR

Connecticut has a seasonal climate, which means that it enjoys four distinct seasons:

- Spring (March - May) begins as cool and rainy, then the weather becomes warm and clear.

- Summer (June – August) can be quite humid, but is also often clear and hot.

- Autumn (September – November) starts out warm and often humid, and then turns cool and rainy.

- Winter (December – February) is usually cold and windy, with plenty of snowfall and some below-freezing temperatures.

Because of Connecticut’s seasonal climate, a variety of clothing is needed. You should own a pair of warm, sturdy boots; a warm jacket or coat (wool or down-filled are good); as well as mittens, gloves, and a hat. It is also recommended that sweaters and thermal underwear be purchased to combat the cold spells and winter storms that are common to a New England winter.

During the autumn and spring months, lightweight jackets and sweaters will keep you warm. Temperatures tend to fluctuate during these months. You will also want to purchase a raincoat for rainy days (particularly during the month of April). If you remain in Connecticut during the summer months, it is also a good idea to bring or purchase short pants, short or sleeveless shirts, and a bathing suit.
WEATHER WEBSITES

www.weather.com – Here you can access Cable TV’s Weather Channel for local, national, and international weather.

www.allmeasures.com/temperature.html – This is a great link for immediate temperature conversion (Fahrenheit/Celsius). Or figure it out for yourself by using the algebraic formula $C° = 5/9(F° - 32)$ http://www.uswx.com/uswx/national.php – This is a good website for weather information, and includes an almanac. If you go into the almanac and type in “06050” (the zip code for New Britain, Connecticut), you will find information about temperature, precipitation, degree days, sunrise, sunset, etc.

U.S. HOLIDAYS

There are three major categories of holidays celebrated in America: patriotic or civic holidays, religious holidays, and just-for-fun holidays. Some of the holidays are legal holidays when schools, banks, government offices, and businesses are closed.

New Year’s Day – January 1. The first day of the year. Most of the celebration takes place the night before (December 31) New Year’s Eve, with parties and other festivities running well into the early morning hours of January 1. New Year’s Day is a legal holiday.

Martin Luther King Day – January 15 (or the Monday closest to that date). Martin Luther King was a revered leader of the Civil Rights Movement who was assassinated in 1968; this legal holiday honors his achievements.

Lincoln’s Birthday – February 12 (or the Monday closest to that date). Abraham Lincoln was the 16th President of the United States, and is remembered for his efforts to abolish slavery in the U.S. Lincoln’s Birthday is a legal holiday.

Valentine’s Day – February 14. On this day, people give those they love (especially sweethearts) cards and/or gifts, such as candy, chocolate, and flowers.

Washington’s Birthday – February 22 (or the Monday closest to that date). George Washington was the first President of the United States. Washington’s Birthday is a legal holiday.

Ash Wednesday – (date varies – sometime in February or March). This is the Christian holiday marking the beginning of the 40-day period of penitence (Lent), concluding with Easter. The Tuesday before Ash Wednesday is often celebrated as Mardis Gras.

St. Patrick’s Day – March 17. Celebration of the patron saint of Ireland. Symbols include shamrocks, leprechauns (elves), and anything green. Some cities hold a parade.

Good Friday - (date varies – sometime in March or April). A legal and Christian holiday, marking the Friday before Easter.

Easter - (date varies – sometime in March or April). A legal and Christian holiday that celebrates the death and resurrection of Jesus. Traditional aspects of this day include Easter egg (decorated eggs) hunts for children, with eggs hidden by the “Easter Bunny,” as well as the giving of Easter baskets filled with candy.

Passover - (date varies – sometime in March or April). This is an eight-day Jewish holiday, commemorating the exodus of the Jews from slavery in Egypt.
Ramadan - (date varies – sometime in March or April). The ninth month of the Islamic calendar and one of the Five Pillars of Islam, Ramadan is observed by Muslims worldwide with 29-30 days of fasting from sunrise to sunset.

April Fool’s Day – April 1. A day when people play harmless pranks and jokes on each other.

Mother’s Day – second Sunday in May. This is a holiday that honors mothers and grandmothers by giving them special attention, such as cards and gifts.

Memorial Day – last Monday in May. This is a legal holiday that honors the men and women of the armed forces who have died while defending the United States. Many people celebrate with picnics and cookouts for family and friends. Many cities have a parade, and the day marks the unofficial beginning of summer.

Flag Day – June 14. This day commemorates the adoption of the American Flag.

Father’s Day – third Sunday in June. Fathers and grandfathers are honored with gifts and cards on this day.

Independence Day – July 4. This legal holiday is probably the most beloved patriotic holiday in the U.S. July 4th celebrates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, when the U.S. declared its independence from England. Today, it is celebrated with parades, picnics and cookouts, outdoor concerts, and firework displays in many communities.

Columbus Day – second Monday in October. This legal holiday honors Christopher Columbus who discovered the New World in 1492. It is sometimes celebrated with parades.

Halloween – October 31. This day is associated with witches, ghosts, bats, goblins, and anything scary. The holiday is primarily for children, who dress in costumes to go “Trick-or-Treating,” ringing doorbells of friends and neighbors houses in order to receive treats, such as candy. The holiday is also celebrated by adults at costume parties.

Veteran’s Day – November 11. Also known as Armistice Day, this legal holiday honors veterans of the armed forces. It is sometimes celebrated with parades.

Today, the Thanksgiving meal typically includes turkey, bread stuffing, root vegetables, cranberry sauce, and pumpkin pie.

Chanukah - (date varies – sometime in November or December). A Jewish holiday lasting eight days. This holiday commemorates the re-dedication of the Temple in Jerusalem and is celebrated by lighting candles each evening at sundown and exchanging small presents.
