WHAT YOU ARE AWESOME AT:
I am awesome at staying motivated to do my work, and helping others stay motivated as well. I am also good at navigating SPSS and helping people with their research paper proposals! I am a good listener and am good at staying calm even when the classwork starts to build up. I also have many different approaches to studying for quizzes and exams that students may benefit from learning.

PERSONAL STATEMENT:
College is hard! I used to be afraid to ask for help too, but it really is no big deal!! Everyone struggles once in a while with material, I still do sometimes! College is a community of education, so let the community help you!
WHAT YOU ARE AWESOME AT:
I am awesome at coming up with study strategies and preparing for exams. I will help to review the material and discover the areas we may need to spend extra time covering. We can use your strengths to find the best study methods for you so you feel best prepared for exams! I’m also great at brainstorming ideas for research topics and finding useful research articles. I can help to narrow down your topic and find what you’d like to focus on!

PERSONAL STATEMENT:

WHAT YOU ARE AWESOME AT:
Elaboration, Communication, and Patience. Learning things in simple terms and connecting them to different examples in the real world will help you understand the material better. I am here to make you feel confident about the material after we meet, and truly help you to understand what you need help on no matter how long it takes!

PERSONAL STATEMENT:
It is okay to ask for clarification on things you truly do not understand as well as asking for things in simpler terms!
