

Student Learning & Licensure (SL&L) Guide:

Students enrolled in an Educator Preparation Program (EPP) within the School of Education are required to purchase a membership to the SL&L platform.

What Is Student Learning & Licensure (SL&L)?

SL&L is an online platform that all teacher candidates must use throughout their professional program. It serves as a centralized hub for:

- Completing assignments and organizing artifacts
- Logging field experience hours
- Creating an online portfolio to showcase learning and share with employers
- Allowing instructors to evaluate student-learning outcomes based on established standards

How & When to Purchase Your SL&L Account:

Students must purchase their SL&L account upon acceptance into the Professional Program and no later than the last day of the add/drop period of their first semester in professional education coursework.
