

Thesis, Dissertation, and Scholarly Project • Interim Submission Acknowledgment Form Central Connecticut State University • Graduate Studies

Central Connecticut State University is transitioning to ProQuest ETD Administrator for the electronic submission of theses, dissertations, and designated scholarly projects.

Until the system is implemented, Graduate Studies will maintain student information for follow-up purposes.

Once the system becomes available, Graduate Studies will contact students using the information provided on this form with instructions for submitting their final approved work.

Students will be responsible for uploading their own work to ProQuest ETD Administrator.
